sonscientious objection before a commissioner of eaths. The new criminal appeal act gives persons convicted the unconditional right of appeal as to questions of law and also with the leave of the Court of Criminal Appeal or on the certificate of the trial judges the right to appeal as to questions of mixed law and fact. The Court of Criminal Appeal may set aside the werdlet of a jury, quash the conviction or vary the judgment or sentence. The amended factory-workshop act limits the hours of women working in laundries to sixty hours a week and provides for the inspection of manual abor in charitable and reformatory lastitutions. In the future a court may release a prisoner on probation furnishing him with a statement of the conditions which he must observe while at liberty.

Such are some of the liberal measures which are expected to affect British social life deeply for years to come.

THAW'S NEW TRIAL GOES ON THIS WEEK

London, Jan. 4.—Many important acts of Parliament passed by the Liberals took effect January 1. Chief the defence of Harry K. Thaw were the defence of Harry K. Thaw were the in scores of years a chance to cultivate their own land and enjoy all the boons of peasant proprietorship. The object of the measure is to stop the rush of people away from the farms. The enthusiasm for it is said to be great, in some counties every available acre of land already having been applied for.

Another important act provides for the revocation of patents where it can be shown that they injure the trade and industry of the united kingdom. It requires alien patentees getting British patents to work them in this country. The new health act enlarges the powers of the local authorities in kanitary matters and in the control of the people's food.

The public-trustee law creates an official with perpetual existence to execute wills—a functionary who "can never die, become incapacitated, leave the country or prove false to his trust." It is expected that this office will be of great benefit to thousands of persons of limited means of appearing before building the promised that the lines are to be strictly drawn. "What did you do," asked Dr. Evans, "to bring this matter before the public?" Thaw replied: "I went to Mr. Comstock; I went to Mr. Jerome; I went to a detective agency and they reported back to me. Mr. Jerome said I had better let it drop; that there was nothing in it. The detective agency said they would work further on it, but did not bring any report that warranted me or enabled me to bring action agaahst Stanford White in a court of law."

Japan Sees Hope in Record

Tokio, Japan, Jan. 4.—In its retrospect of the closing year the Kokumin Shimbun finds general reason for encouragement. The increased responsibilities of the nation politically and financially inspire some misgivings, but it should be borne in mind, says the Kokumin, that with renewed vigor and untiring energy the brightest prospects may be realized. It adds that the national resources and popular energy are so great as not to warrant any extreme pessimism.
