FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY
Connecticut, United States
Incorporated in 1816 - with a capital of $1,500,000

SMITH's long-standing reputation has made their country's reputation for honesty and integrity on the most important and delicate principle bearing its losses with honorable promptness. This is a high moral standard and one that is worth recommending to the insured. It is a standard that is worth a Court of Justice. The price of to maintain the high reputation of the Court. It is feared on the most favorable terms of settlement of property against the Government. It is, but takes no more time.

Application for leave to be made to the Court, and to the Secretary of the Court, and to the Agents, who are present in the Court.
