

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

ARRIVAL of Sir James Henry Craig. Meeting of the Provincial Parliament. Discussions in the Assembly relating to the Election of Judges and Jews.—Prorogation.—Elections and meeting of the New Provincial Parliament. Further discussions on the Election of Judges and Jews. The Assembly is dissolved. Elections. Meeting of the New Parliament. Offer of the Assembly to pay the Civil List. The appointment of an Agent in England considered. Measures respecting a Judge. Second dissolution,

CHAPTER II.

Measures of the Administration and Imprisonment of several persons. The Governor's Proclamation. Proceedings in the Court of King's Bench at Quebec. The Judge (De Bonne) declines his Election. Prisoners at Montreal released. Meeting of the New Provincial Parliament. The Governor's Speech. Answer of the Assembly. The Governor's reply. Bill rendering Judges ineligible to a seat in the Assembly. Prorogation of Parliament. The Governor's Departure for England. His Character,

CHAPTER III.

Arrival of Sir George Prevost. Major General Brock assumes the Government of Upper-Canada. The Governor makes the tour of the Upper-District. Meeting of the Provincial Parliament. Proceedings of the Assembly. Prorogation. Henry's Mission. Militia Embodied. Declaration of War by America. Governor assembles the Legislature. Army Bill Act. Riot at Lachine. Capture of Michillimackinac. Invasion of Upper-Canada. Retreat of the Enemy. Battle of Maguago. Capture of Detroit. Armistice. Its rejection by the American Government.

CHAPTER IV.

Various occurrences. Battle of Queenstown. Death of General Brock. His Character. General Sheaffe assumes the Command in Upper-Canada. Attack at St. Regis. Advance of the American army under General Dearborn. Incursion of the enemy at La Cole. General Smyth's attempt to invade Upper Canada. Meeting of the Provincial Parliament. Proceedings of the Assembly. Prorogation,

CHAPTER V.

Battle of Frenchtown, and defeat of the Americans under General Winchester. The Governor visits Upper Canada. Attack upon Ogdensburgh. Capture of York by the enemy. Attack and reduction of Fort George by the Americans. Expedition against Sacket's Harbour. Evade at Fort Meigs. Brilliant attack upon the enemy's Camp at Stoney Creek by Lieut. Colonel Harvey. Affair at Beaver Dams. Attack upon Black Rock by Lieut.-Colonel Bishopp, and death of that Officer. Attack upon Lower Sandusky. Capture of the Growler and Eagle near Isle aux Noix. Reduction of Plattsburgh, Champlain and Swanton. Affair of Goose Creek. Death of Captain Milnes. Naval occurrences on Lake Ontario.

CHAPTER VI.

Naval Engagement on Lake Erie. Evacuation of Detroit by the British. Battle at the Moravian Village and defeat of General Proctor. The British raise the investment of Fort George. Invasion of Lower-Canada by General Hamps