

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Notes

We Gladly Welcome the delegates of the Presbyterian Assembly of Canada, who preach for us to-day.

The Nova Scotia Central Baptist Association convenes next Friday, 2 p. m., with the Aylesford Church. Our delegates are Pastor Fash, Brethern Deacon J. Bentley, G. A. McDonald, J. F. L. Parsons, S. P. Dumaresq, and Sister Mabel Parsons. The pulpit will be supplied next Sunday probably by one of the delegates in attendance at the Association.

The Recital Tuesday evening will be one of special merit. Prof. Shaw is a graduate of Acadia College, where for five years during his course, he taught elocution. He is now principal of Toronto College of Music School of Expression and has made his mark as a teacher and reciter. Miss Elsie Hubley, Mrs. Kearney, and N. L. McDonald, will assist. This recital is under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U., and promises to be one of the best ever held in our vestry. The proceeds will enable the Union to pay its subscription to the Repair Fund. Come.

Will all those who sold Tickets for the Tissot's Pictures, kindly hand in the amounts to-day.

Death. Another of our church members have been called to her reward. Mrs. E. F. Barnes passed away Friday the 8th inst. A great sufferer, she had a strong trust in the Savior. Our sympathy is extended to the husband and two daughters remaining.

Repairs. Have Begun on our church. With the hearty co-operation of all, we expect to have improvements which will make our church more like what it ought to be.

The Governor of Georgia says that he has found from careful investigation that 83 per cent of the inmates of jails in that state have never been in Sunday School.

Applications for Sittings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson. The seats are assigned, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.

THIS CHURCH IS SUPPORTED by the voluntary contributions of the people. That is to say, every member of this church is covenanted voluntarily to subscribe towards the expenses of the church whatever sum it is in their power to give, and shall so inform the Financial Secretary, and from him receive envelopes for that purpose. All bills or accounts are to be sent to A. E. Soulis, 119 Robie St. All monies contributed, donated or raised by and for the church, are to be handed to N. L. McDonald, Fin. Sec'y.

CONVENTION FUND offering the second Sunday of each month. W. M. A. S. offering the third Sunday of each quarter beginning with August.

Families having cases of sickness or distress will please send word at once to the pastor or one of the Deacons. You are urged to use the information cards in pews. You are not a regular member of some other city congregation, you are cordially invited to come with us and find a permanent home.
