RIPANS

ONE GIVES RELIEF NO MATTER WHAT'S THE MATTER ONE OF THEM WILL DO YOU GOOD.

Rev. Frederick R. Martin, long-time pastor of the First Congregational Church, of Great Barrington, Mass., and at one time a practicing physician, a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, says of Ripans Tablets: "The formula has long been in favor with medical men and the method of preparation in the present form is modern and a great convenience. I always keep a vial of the Tablets upon my dressing table and use them with confidence whenever occasion arises. For a disturbed condition of the digestive organs I know of nothing so good, and for an 'acid' stomach, I firmly believe I do not believe there is anything better to be had."

HEALTH AND HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Clean plaster of paris ornaments with wet starch. Brush off when dry.

The torn pages of a book may be nicely mended with white tissue paper.

Always fold a dress-shirt right side out for packing, as it will not wrinkle so much.

A few drops of benzoin placed on cotton and put in or around a tooth that is aching will almost instantly stop the pain.

It has been noticed that workmen attending pans in salt works do not have cholera, smallpox, scarlet fever, or influenza.

A few drops of tincture of benzoin in a bowl of water is an admirable tonic for the face. The benzoin whitens the skin and prevents it from wrinkling.

Good laundry women always rub their irons in salt to make them smooth before putting them upon fine starched goods; and it does clean them beautiful—better than wax.

An agreeable way of treating the eyes with salt and water is to wink them in a cup that is brimful. The eyes will be suffused by simply winking the lashes in the water.

Soap used on the hair is apt to make it brittle. If any is to be used tar soap is the best, and after using rinse the hair in several waters in which a little powdered borax has been dissolved.

Leather belts or boots that have been soaked in water or dried hard may be softened by rubbing plentifully with coal oil. If the leather is very dirty wash it with good hot soapsuds first.

Pork Pudding.—One cupful fat pork chopped fine; one cupful of sugar; two eggs; one cupful raisins, stoned and chopped; one teaspoonful each of cinnamon, cloves and soda; one nutmeg, grated; make very stiff with flour, and steam three hours.

Soup stock is very good for invalids. One way to use it is to beat an egg in a bowl till very light, pouring on the stock boiling hot, and beating constantly while pouring it in. Pour slowly so as not to cook the egg too rapidly. Season with pepper and salt.

Fried Cream.—Put on one pint of milk to boil; add two tablespoonfuls of corn starch, one-quarter teaspoonful of salt, one well-beaten egg; don't allow to boil after adding the egg; turn into a square mold to cool. When cold cut into slices half an inch thick, roll in flour and saute in butter in a frying-pan.

A Cheese Sandwich.—Pound together to a smooth paste one part of fresh butter, and two parts of Parmesan cheese with some mustard to taste. Butter some thin slices of bread with this mixture and lay on half their number thin slices of chicken, ham or other kind of meat desired. Press the cheese spread on the above, and cut into neat, narrow sandwiches.

Vegetable Soup.—Scrape and cut in pieces two turnips, three carrots, one onion and three potatoes. Put in kettle with one quart of water, let boil until tender, adding a tablespoonful of salt. Remove scum as fast as it rises. Add a pint of hot water, and a quart of soup stock; boil fifteen minutes, then thicken with two tablespoonfuls of flour rubbed in two tablespoonfuls of butter. Serve with toasted bread.

In the picture galleries of Paris there are hundreds of battle pieces, but they are all pictures of French victories. In this way the people are taught falsely that the armies of France are never defeated. So it is in the picture gallery of our memory. We remember all we do for God, and forget all we do against him. Individuals like nations are slow to confess their failures.

HOOD'S IS WONDERFUL.

No less than wonderful are the cures accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla, even after other preparations and physicians' prescriptions have failed. The reason, however, is simple. When the blood is enriched and purified, disease disappears and good health returns, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one true blood-purifier.

Hood's Pills are prompt and efficient and do not purge, pain or grip. 25c.
