

John A. MacDonald.

Mr. John A. MacDonald, late inspector of weights and measures, died on Thursday, March 5th, at his home at 127 Henderson avenue. The deceased was 84 years of age, and had been failing in health for the last three years. His son, Eddie, played on the championship team of 1907 here. A delegation of students attended the funeral on March 7th at St. Joseph's Church.

Rev. Fr. Hammersley met with a very painful accident while in Renfrew recently, spraining his ankle. He has been confined to the hospital for the past two weeks, but we hope he will soon be able to continue his professional duties.

Rev. Fr. Healy, who was forced to leave off teaching two years ago on account of his health, has returned to Ottawa, and has been appointed curate of St. Joseph's Church.

Among the old students at the Ottawa-Boston game were Dr. Kearney, Jimmy Cussack, Milot and Rochon.

Our two old friends, Gillespie and Flahiff, are now travelling through South America in the interests of the Harvester Company.

Rev. Fr. Bemaski, of Barry's Bay, was a visitor to the University last month.

Rev. Fr. Wm. Murphy, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, has taken a trip down south for his health, accompanied by Fr. McGowan. Rev. Fr. Collins has succeeded Father Murphy at St. Joseph's pro tem.

Mr. Jack Minmock has returned to the city from the Maritime Provinces.

Eddie Nagle's Battlefield team finished second in their league this winter, coming up from last in the race, a position they had held for several seasons.