

without which she will never succeed in understanding the tender organization of her child; thus constitutions will be strengthened and lives saved. Instead of walking in uncertain paths in the dark, now over-coddling, now overbracing, practicing experiments haphazard on the delicate little frame, the mother will be guided aright, for the laws of nature will be taken for her guide. And so beautiful and so full of interest are those laws that surely, even if their study involves some sacrifice of time, it will become a pleasure as it becomes a duty, and there will be ample compensation

A correspondent writes us from Pennsylvania:

"I attended our Baltimore Quarter two weeks ago. John J. Cornell and Isaac Hicks were present. The former was greatly favored to address the large and mixed audience, setting forth very clearly the distinctive features of Quakerism, to the satisfaction of all present. Isaac was also very much favored. These, with our own Darlington Hoopes, were the principal speakers. Baltimore particular Meeting has been well attended during the winter. Much larger than usual, many not members attending to hear the able discourses of J. J. C."

HARNED ACADEMY

A FRIENDS' BOARDING SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

PLAINFIELD, - NEW JERSEY.

This is a select home-school where each pupil is treated as a member of the Principal's family and brought under the influence of refined home culture, situated in the pleasant and healthful city of Plainfield, with large grounds and a good gymnasium. The buildings are brick, heated by steam and lighted by gas. The aim of this school is to prepare students for the Swarthmore College, or any other college they may desire to enter, and to furnish a good business education. We endeavor to develop our pupils mentally, morally and physically so as to produce the best results.

We desire to develop intelligent, upright, honest men, and to this end we aim to surround them with such influences as will bring out their better natures, and inspire a desire for study and improvement. For particulars address, EDWARD N. HARNED, Principal.
