

floral, lettering or other design, and are nicely finished inside with compartments for pens, pencil, etc. One variety has a compass. Another is Japanese black wood with pretty design. They range in price from 40c. to $1.50 per dozen wholesale, and boxes to retail at 5c., 10c., 15c. and 25c. will all be found in the line.

CARPET SWEEPERS A SUCCESS.

An immense sale of the toy carpet sweeper has taken place during the last month, report Nerlich & Co. It has evidently "caught on," as the Yankees say, owing to its combined qualities of usefulness and attractiveness. Not being too expensive, a large trade in the sweepers is expected.

BUYERS IN TOWN.

The fancy goods houses report a good trade during the Exhibition. The cheap fares brought buyers from all the provinces, and Nerlich & Co.'s customers were surprised at the show of goods made by this firm, some indication of which has already been given in these columns. So large a display, they declared, was seldom seen in this country. Those who have not taken advantage of the low railway rates this time should do so next year, as it will pay them to examine the articles which are suited to the trade in their own localities.

THE ARTISTIC PENCIL.

The Artistic pencil is a new automatic pencil of a nice appearance, and each pencil accompanied by a box of leads. The price is 40c. per doz., and it will easily retail at 5c. each. The Copp, Clark Co. show this line.

NEW ENGLISH MAGAZINE.

Messrs. Hutchinsons' new magazine is to appear in October, under the conduct of Mr. W. H. Wilkins, who is known as the joint-author, with Mr. Herbert Vivian, of one or two novels of a satirical character. It is said, among those who claim to know, that the editorship was first offered to Miss Marie Corelli, and that a very handsome salary was proposed to her. That lady, however, was disinclined to undertake the necessary labor, which she felt would interfere with her fecundity as a novelist. Mr. Wilkins is a young man and has abundant energy.
