CATARRH! HAY FEVER. CATARRHAL DEAFNESS. A New Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated, whereby Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever are cured in from one to three simple applications made at home. A pamphlet, explaining this new treatment, is sent free on receipt of stamp, by

A Great Paper.

The Illustrated News Co., of New York, now issue weekly an American edition of the Illustrated London News, which, as our readers will know, is the leading illustrated weekly of the world, a pioneer in its own special work of popularizing art, and furnishing to the public more extensive and accurate information in reference to a great many subjects than could possibly be conveyed through any journal restricted to mere typography. This American edition is fully equal to the original and will be furnished to subscribers in Canada and the U. S. at the remarkably low price of $4.00 per annum. We gladly commend it to the readers of THE CANADA CITIZEN.

Our Gossip.

FIRKMAN: "Hurry up! There isn't a moment to spare!" She "Oh, dear! I must I go out this way? Do tell me, please, if my hat is straight!" Life

"Miss McLEOD: "Ah, Biddy, look at the black eye you've got; wasn't yez better off on $3 a week at service?" Mrs. O'Brien: "What if Mike do hate me, I'm me own mistress now." Life.

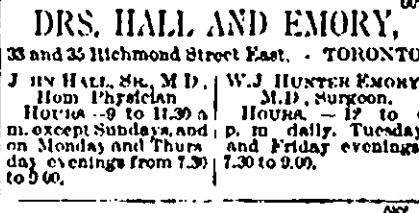

"O, I do so adore foot-ball," said Miss Highsqueak, with great enthusiasm. "I kicked all through the season of Seventy-five and six." "At foot-ball?" exclaimed Fullback, in horror. "Oh, dear, no," she said, sweetly, "I was soprano in the choir of the Church of Saint Tralaloo." Burdett.

Husband - I can't stand this any longer. You make me desperate. Wife - So you have said before. Husband - I'm going into the next room to kill myself. Wife - The spare room? I guess not. If you want to kill yourself, the woodshed is plenty good enough. - Omaha Herald.
