LETTER FROM BISHOP LOGUE OF BAPHOE ACKNOWLEDGMENT.
The following is a letter from the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Baphoe to Father Cadigan, P.P. of Onelow, Que., soknowledging the receipt of fifty-six dollars ($56), being the amount of a collection taken up in St. Bridget's Church, North Onslow, on Patrick's, Day for the Irish

LETTEREBERRY, 23rd April, 1883. My Dear Father Cadigan,-

I have duly received your very kind and sympathetic letter with the accompanying drait for $56. I beg to thank you most sincerely for both. I beg also to thank your warmhearted Irish flook who have so fit! honored the feast of our National Apostle by an act of genuine charity.

It is well for our poor destitute people that they find sympathy among those of their own mony of devotion of a sea-divided race to its race and faith. Were it otherwise their case distressed kindred, with the other Irish Ameriwould be hopeless. English statesman give can Societies, entered the convention for the them a choice between the poor house and purpose of uniting all the elements of the the emigrant ship. English charity seeks other fields for its exercise. Though I make | their countrymen at home. The convention no distinction of creed where I find real want, I believe I could count on my fingers - all the English Protestants from whom I have received any aid for the people. We have received very large contributions from England and Scotland for the relief of distress, but they were chiefly made up of sums collected in Catholic churches from poor Irish workmen. The United States, where so many of our people have found a home, supplies our chief means of providing for the wants of our poor sufferers. You and your good people are among the few who have sent aid from Causda, but I believe if the real state of the people were known we should have had liberal help from our countrymen in Usnada also.

I fear the condition of the people will go from bad to worse during the summer months. At present all the resources of the people and all the junds supplied by public charity, have been exhausted in the endeavor to get down a crop; but how the people are to be kept alive till the crop matures is a question of which we must leave the solution in the hands of Divine Providence.

Please to convey my heartfelt thanks to your good people, assuring them that the poor sufferers for whom they have shown such sympathy shall not fail to pray fervently for them and for their institutions.

Praying that God may bless you and your charitable parishioners, I am, dear Father Cadigan,

Yours most faithfully, MICHAEL LOGUE.

To the Editor of THE TRUE WITHERS :

Dear Sir,-During the past few days we, the Catholics of St. Malachie d'Ormetown, have been greatly favored. Through the zeal and untiring efforts of our worthy pastor, Rev. N. E. Demers, who had two beautiful paintings, viz., Immaculate Conception and St. Joseph with the Infant Jesus, size 5x11 feet, hung in our Sanctuary. Both highly adorn our little Ohapel and reflects much credit on the able gentleman, the Bev. Mr. Harel, of Montreal, who portrayed and delineated suca beautiful specimens of art. We have also the Table of St. Malachy, patron saint of the parish, which was prepared by the same gentleman, and bung for our Ohristmes festival last year.

Our Divine Lord, in the distribution of His many choice gifts, favored us more highly in granting us a good Forty Hours Devotion. To day terminates the holy exercises of this grand fete, and, assuradly, it was a success. It was gratifying to witness the devotedness and plety with which some seemed to be infiamed. At intervals old age, as well as youth, was seen to be silently wending their way to the little village chapel, to adore and reverence the Lord of Hosts. Our worthy pastor, who descrees commendation for his zeal and energy in promoting our spiritual interests, as also his conferes, Revd. Messes. Woods of Huntingdon, Archambault of Hinchinbrooke, Valade of St. Stanislans, and Gagnon of St. Louis, were much pleased to see such a goodly number of the congregation approach and partake of the Bicssed Eucharist during those days of grace.

The music, under the auspices of the Revd. Meesrs. Valade and Demers, P.P., was truly grand.
