1. The signing of this agreement, which in its text mentions China, may under no circumstances be regarded as a recognition of the authority of the Kuomintang over the territory of Taiwan nor of the so-called "Chinese national government" as the legal and competent government of China.

2. Considering the fact that the Polish People's Republic is a country of a planned economy, the provisions of the present Agreement concerning production, stocks and subsidization of export, especially Articles 10, 13 and 1 do not apply to the Polish People's Republic.
