

Second Answer: Phil Barter

I can tell you that being a partner of a Canadian national firm and also an international firm paying taxes in several jurisdictions gets to be a pain in the neck.