

- the need for further methodological work to ensure transparency and consistency.
- Opportunities exist but they cannot come to fruition without these two things.
- We wait with interest the U.S. draft COP decision which seems to address many of Canada's concerns on this issue, and particularly on credits and methodologies.
- We look forward to discussing this proposal for a draft decision in the contact group.

Thank you