

3) letter, I trust you will not mind my saying what a pleasure it was to receive script so faultlessly prepared. If all, or even the majority, of the manuscripts we received had received a fraction of such care in preparation, one of the nightmares of editing would have vanished.

Faithfully yours,

R. C. Fetherstonhaugh
Editor "The McGill News"