

raise the whole fund at a sweep.

Since the talk with you however and learning that the University contemplated a similar movement in the near future, I do not think that this idea will be pushed at the present time at any rate.

I really believe though that something definite must be done before long to give Montreal a proper hall for concert purposes there being so much dissatisfaction with existing circumstances which are, to say the least, a reproach to our otherwise fine progressive city.

You did mention that, when the
