

The following letter was kindly handed to me by the Rev. Mr. Potts, after these "MEMORIALS" had gone through the press. So far as I know, it was the last letter Bro. Jackson ever wrote. It speaks for itself. It will no doubt be read with profit by the numerous friends of the deceased, as it has been by

THE PUBLISHER.