

are not ready to take the Matriculation Examination, and tuition is given in the subjects for that examination. All such candidates for admission, who shall have satisfied the Council as described above, can enter the school as Probationers and have the benefit of this Preparatory course previously to offering themselves at the Matriculation Examination in the following year.

The conditions requisite to entrance on this Preparatory Year are an acquaintance with the rudiments of Greek and Latin Grammar, and English Composition.

The Keeping of Terms.

The full course of study occupies three years, each year comprising two terms:—

1. Michaelmas Term—from October 1st to December 23rd (inclusive).
2. Easter Term—from January 7th to May 25th (inclusive).

There are three classes. The students who enter the first year compose the Junior Class; those advanced into the second year, the Intermediate Class; those advanced into the third year, the Senior Class.

Every student entitled to it shall receive at the end of the term, from each instructor whose lectures he attended, a certificate of his having been regular in his attendance, and of his having passed all his examinations with success.

No student who has absented himself more than twice from the lectures of any professor without permission or a satisfactory excuse shall receive from him a certificate.

An examination shall be held at the end of Michaelmas and Easter Terms in the studies of the term, and at the end of Easter Term in the studies of the year.

No student can be advanced to the studies of a succeeding term or
