

- Valencia, a town in the Caraccas, 715.
 —, a city of Spain, described, ii. 242—the university of, 256.
 Valetta, or Citta Nuova, a city of Malta, described, ii. 305.
 Validia, mosque of the, described, ii. 189.
 Valladolid, a city of Spain, described, ii. 245.
 Valparaiso, a town of Chili, 728.
 Vampire, a bat of Madagascar, 492.
 Vandamme, General, taken prisoner by the Russians, ii. 668.
 Van Dieman's Land, Captain Fyrciaux's account of, 268.
 Var, a river of France, course of the, ii. 511.
 Vatican, palace of the, at Rome, described, ii. 453.
 Vauga, a river of Portugal, ii. 294.
 Vauxhall Gardens, description of, ii. 762.
 Venetians, description and manners of the, ii. 471—sketch of their history, 477.
 Venice, the city of, described, ii. 465.
 Vera Cruz, a town of Spanish America, 623.
 Vernal festival observed in China, 54.
 Verona, a city of Italy, described, ii. 466.
 Veronesch, a city of Russia, ii. 159.
 Versailles, description of the palace of, ii. 523.
 Yessel, description of a Japanese, 169.
 Vestibule des Voyageurs, a Parisian establishment, described, ii. 541.
 Yesuvius, Mount, description of, ii. 436.
 Vicenza, a town of Italy, ii. 466.
 Viceroy, public entrance of a Spanish, into Lima, 721.
 Videroe, one of the Feroe Islands, ii. 79.
 Vienna, the capital of Austria, described, ii. 402.
 Villa D'Iglesia, a city of Sardinia, ii. 493.
 Village, description of a Tibetan, 136.
 — rector, anecdote of the return of a, to France, ii. 542.
 Vimiera, battle of, ii. 316—anecdotes of the, 317.
 Vinegar-hill, defeat of the Irish rebels at, ii. 1069.
 Violet adopted, by the French conspirators, as a symbol of Buonaparte, ii. 694.
 Vipers, Egyptian, 355.
 Visit of Hope to Sidney Cove, 211.
 — of Mr. Bruce to the ladies at the court of Senmaar, 445.
 — of the allied sovereigns to England, ii. 957.
 Visits, ceremonious, in China, 52.
 Vittoria, battle of, ii. 955.
 Vladimir, the order of, described, ii. 147.
 Volcanic mountain in Japan, 164.
 Volcano of Linesung, in China, 36.
 —, one of the Lipari Islands, ii. 490.
 Volga, the principal river of Russia, ii. 135.
 Volodimir introduces the Greek religion into Russia, ii. 167.
 Volunteer associations, formed at Sydney and Paramatta, in New Holland, 247.
 Waerden, cruel massacre of the Protestants at, ii. 358.
 Wagram, battle of, ii. 647.
 Wake, Kidd, punishment of, for insulting the king, ii. 921.
 Walachian sheep, ii. 184.
 Walcheren, expedition against, ii. 943.
 Waldemar, king of Sweden, ii. 110.
 Wales, situation, boundaries, and divisions of, ii. 994—climate, soil, rivers, and mountains, 995—animals, minerals, antiquities, and curiosities, ib.—learning and learned men, ib.—commerce, manufactures, constitution, and government, ib.—revenues, arms, and religion, 996—cities, towns, &c. ib.—inhabitants, customs, and manners, 1000—history, 1003.
 —, Prince of, married to the Princess Caroline of Brunswick, ii. 921.
 — sworn in as regent of the united kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, 946.
 Wales, the Princess of, complains of the restrictions upon her intercourse with her daughter, ii. 953—writes to the queen and the regent, on the subject of her exclusion from the drawing-room; 959—discussion of the subject in parliament, 961.
 —, the Princess Charlotte of, intended to be united to the Prince of Orange, ii. 961—rupture of the negotiations, ib.—escape of, from Warwick-house, 962—parliamentary provision for her marriage with the Prince of Saxe-Cobourg, 984.
 Wall of China, the celebrated, 36.
 Wallace, William, the Scottish patriot, some account of, ii. 1031.
 Walpole, Sir Robert, some account of, ii. 897.
 Wans, a beautiful district of Norway, ii. 7.
 War between Great Britain and the French republic, origin of the, ii. 919.
 Warbeck, Perkin, some account of, ii. 881.
 Wardrobe, the royal, of Prussia, in the reign of Frederick the Second, ii. 416.
 Ware, in Hertfordshire, described, ii. 804.
 Waring, Major, his description of Shiraz, 110.
 Warren, Sir J. B., defeats a French squadron, off the coast of Ireland, ii. 924.
 Wars of Frederick William I., king of Prussia, 420—433.
 Warsaw, a city of Polish Prussia, ii. 418.
 Warwick, the county-town of Warwickshire, described, ii. 805—relics of Guy, earl of Warwick, 806.
 — and Birmingham canal, course of the, ii. 821.
 Washing the feet of the Apostles, ceremony of, at Moscow, ii. 155.
 Washington, the metropolis of the United States of America, 595—destruction of the public buildings at, by General Ross, ii. 978—loss sustained by the American government on that occasion, ib.
 —, George, appointed commander-in-chief of all the American forces, ii. 907.
 Watch, a curious, in the Academy of Sciences at St. Petersburg, ii. 138.
 Water-dog of the river Oroonoko, described, 713.
 — rockets exhibited on the Serpentine river, ii. 963.
 — works, description of the London Bridge, ii. 746.
 Watson, the elder, apprehension of, ii. 990.
 —, the younger, conduct of, in Skinner Street, 988.
 Waxen figure of Peter the Great, ii. 151.
 Well, a curious, in the castle of Grand Cairo, 369.
 Wellington, Lord, quits Brussels for Quatre Bras, ii. 708—retreats to Waterloo, 712—gains a brilliant victory over Buonaparte and the chosen troops of France, 716.
 Welsh, persons, dress, and manners of the, ii. 1000—superstitions, 1001, 1002—marriages and funerals, 1003.
 West-Indies, general description of the, 660—character of the white restlains in the, 690.
 Westminster Abbey, description of, ii. 750.
 — Bridge, description of, ii. 746.
 — Hall, description of, ii. 754.
 Wexford, a sea-port in Ireland, described, ii. 1058.
 Weymouth, description of, ii. 788.
 Whale, the Greenland, some account of, 665.
 — fishery, described, ib.
 Wha-tapoa roo, an animal of New Holland, 212.
 Whidah, the kingdom of, described, 416—persons, dress, and manners of the negroes of, 418—religion, ib.—public fetishes, 419—office of the priesthood extended to females, ib.—government and capital punishments, ib.
 Whirlpools, remarkable, in Japan, 165.
 Whispering-gallery, in St. Paul's Cathedral, described, ii. 749.
 Whitehall, description of, ii. 754.
 White Sea, description of the, 2.
 Wickliffe, Dr., an English reformer, some account of, ii. 877.
 Wight, the Isle of, described, ii. 1008.
 Wild ducks, curious method of catching, in the Caraccas, 712.

Wilke
 Willis
 —
 Wilna
 Wilso
 —
 Wilto
 Wilts
 Winar
 Winch
 —
 Pro
 Wind
 Wind
 Wind
 bod
 —
 Wine
 Winte
 —
 Wittis
 181
 Woah
 Wolfe
 Wolve
 —
 Wo-m
 Wood
 Wooli
 Worce

The F
 Tit
 Map o
 The C
 The A
 Map c
 Map c
 View r
 Ruins
 Map c
 Bridge
 The R
 The P
 Cantor
 Map o
 Scene i
 The F
 Map o
 Ruins
 Map o
 A Sno
 A Dor
 Map o
 Map (
 Inhabi
 A Sav
 A Dan
 An Of Sand