In the death of Judge Thomas Ambrose Milne Gorham, at his residence "Fels-garth," at Milton Saturday, Halton County loses possibly its most popular and influential citizen. Tells of Murdering Two of His Four Wives, Seven Other Women, Two Policemen and Three Business

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—A man variously known as "Henry Spencer," "Skupala" and "Joseph Burke," an ex-convict, who was arrested last night, made a confession this evenwas found near Wayne, a suburb, for whose murder her husband has been held in jail for ten days. He also confessed he had committed from 12 to 14 other murders. Among his victims were two policemen. Many of the murders were committed within the last year.

The confession, if true, clears up many of the mysteries that have baffled the police department. This astonishing man could not remember the exact number of the tragedies. The list he recalled is as follows: Mrs. Rexroat, Patrolman Pennell, Patrolman Devine, Fannie Thompson, a woman whose body was found near the county hospital; a broker whose body was found in Jackson Park, a woman found on Angamon street, a woman found in the drainage/canal, two girls in Delavan, Wis., a woman found back of the stock yards, one woman at Fort Montgom-
