Decay followed with a discharge which is believed to have been poison-Wilfrid's system for years, sing intestinal disturbance and pain which has had a weakening effect. Continued pain drove Sir Wilfrid to the dentists, but they were unable to nine the source of the trouble and laid the blame to neuralgia.

With the removal of the tooth fragment the surgeons confidently expect when the wound of the operation healed, Sir Wilfrid will no longer suffer the pain and consequent weak-

CASUALTIES HEAVY

British Army Lost Total of Fifteen Hundred Officers in Two Weeks.

LONDON. Sept. 10 .- Officers' casualty lists for the fortnight ended Aug. 30 indicate the severity of the recent fighting in the Gallipeli Peninsula, where the bulk of the casualties are announced. They show that the British army lost 407 officers killed, 959 wounded and 136 missing, a total of 1502 for the fortnight. This number has been exceeded only once in any fortnight since the beginning of the war, 1627 casualties having been an-nounced between May 5 and May 18. Losses of officers since the outbreak of hostilities have now reached a total of 15,840, of whom 4790 have been killed, 9698 wounded and 1352 report-

During the past fortnight Brigadier-General A. H. Baldwin has been killed, three other brigadier-generals have been wounded nine lieutenant-colonels killed and two reported missing. The Australian contingent has been the greatest sufferer, having lost 63 killed, 150 wounded and 15 missing.

URGE RAIDS IN REPRISAL.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—A portion of the London press today demanded that the allies make retaliatory raids upon the larger cities of Germany, naming Strassburg and Cologne as within striking distance of the French lines.

THE HIPPODROME.

For next week the Hippodrom management has arranged as the healline attraction that clever quar-"The Majestic Musical Four." talented singing, dancing and instrumental organization. The dainty comedienne, Evelyn Cunningham, wil sing some original songs with appropriate changes of costume, that are to be very effective. Harry Cutler, an English comedian, who is said to have been a sensation in London's music halls, comes next week as the special feature. Kelly Bros. and company will present their breezy comedy playlet, "Fun in a Sporting Goods Store," a comedy sketch replete with bright lines and amusing chatter. Dunbar and Turner will offer an entertaining melange, while Frawley and Hunt, Irish singers and dancers, have a pleasing musical offering. O'Hara and Griffin, featured in a number of aleans. ber of clever and unusual aerial feats, and complete photo-plays and feature film attractions complete the bill.

SHEAS. The Bell Family, a sextet of accomplished musicians, singers and dancers, comes to Shea's as the headline attraction of a bright bill next week. Marion Weeks possesses an excellent voice and is credited with being the only artist in vaudeville with a voice of sufficient range to sing the difficult "Doll Song" from the "Tales of Hoffman." Patrons of Shea's will be pleased to learn of the return of that sterling character actor, E. Hawley, in his intensely dramatic playlet "The Bandit." Mr. Hawley will GOVERNMENT PRINTERS be assisted as of yore by Miss Frances Haight. Ward, Bell and Ward have a snappy singing and dancing act, while Hayden, Borden and Hayden have an offering brimful of action, class and refined clowning. Dupree and Dupree have many amusing cycling feats and introduce their new feature the unicycle. Leo Zarrell has an unusually clever "strong man" act, which is said to be very good, while Hayes and Thatcher will present their own original vaudeville novelty. Feature film attractions complete the bill.

LOEW'S YONGE ST. THEATRE. The big feature act of the bill at Loew's Theatre the coming week is the posing and diving novelty staged by John F. Conroy and his two lovely exhibition that will delight the water sports in fancy diving. Other acts that will entertain are Ethel Mar Hall & Co. in the screamingly comedy play-let The Wrong Guy. The Auto Girls coming to the Star Theatre next week, beginning with the matinee Monday are in a class by themselves when it comes to putting over a regular show. To exploit this company, a two-act musical burlesque has been secured, entitled, "In a Millionaire's Jail." A capable company of thirty-five people, headed by Carol Schroder, Harry Seymour and James J. Lake, will be seen in the cast, supported by a singing and dancing beauty chorus that will make you sit up and take notice. An olio between the acts will offer Sid Gold, popular song hits; Lake and Schroder, the sure fire duo, in "Conology," and the special added attraction, the three Bennett Sisters, the "athletic girls" introducing baseball, bag punching, fencing, boxing and wrestling.

The Sporting Widows Company will make its visit to the Gayety Theatre week commencing Monday matinee. The Sporting Widows, with John Lorenz and Eddie Fox. comedians, and 7339 hicle, entitled, "All in Fun," and with 5424 all new scenic equipment and a car-1249 load of gorgeous wardrobe, is said to 1788 represent the very last word in up-todate burlesque, and with the musical numbers staged by Dan Dody's ballet master from the Hippodrome. London, and an especially selected chorus of the Winter Garden beauties many novel features will be offered to local burlesque patrons.
