

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Upper Canada Law Journal. Toronto: Maclear & Co. A very useful and excellent periodical.—Guelph Times, August 13, 1858.

The Upper Canada Law Journal. Maclear & Co., Toronto. This well conducted publication, we are glad to learn, has proved eminently successful. Its contents must prove of great value to the Profession in Canada, and will prove interesting in the United States.—Legal Intelligencer, Philadelphia, August 6, 1858.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL for July. Maclear & Co., Toronto. $4 a year.—To this useful publication the public are indebted for the only reliable law intelligence. For instance, after all the Toronto newspapers have given a garbled account of the legal proceedings in the case of James K. Cummings, out comes the Law Journal and speaks the truth, viz: that the Court of Appeal has ordered a new Trial, the prisoner remaining in custody.—British Whig, July 6, 1858.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL Toronto: Maclear & Co.—The July number of this valuable journal has reached us. As it is the only publication of the kind in the Province, it ought to have an extensive circulation, and should be in the hands of all business as well as professional men. The price of subscription is four dollars a year in advance.—Spectator, July 7, 1858.

Upper Canada Law Journal—This highly interesting and useful journal for June has been received. It contains vast amount of information. The articles on "The work of Legislation," "Law Reforms of the session," "Historical Sketch of the Constitutional Laws and Legal Tribunals of Canada," are well worthy of a careful perusal. This work should be found in the office of every merchant and trader in the Province, being, in our opinion, of quite as much use to the merchant as the lawyer.—Hamilton Spectator, June 8, 1858.

The Upper Canada Law Journal and Local Courts Gazette, for June Toronto.—Maclear & Co., Publishers, Messrs. ARDAGH and HARRISON, Editors.

This is a most excellent publication. The present number contains very able original articles on the following topics:—The work of Legislation, "Consolidation of the Laws of Upper Canada," and "Law Reforms of the Session—General Review (continued)." The reports of important cases tried in the Local Courts, are full and very interesting. Altogether this magazine is conducted with much ability, and it richly deserves to be widely patronized.—Thorold Gazette, June 9, 1858.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL for May is full of interesting articles—instructive alike to the profession and the general public. The editorials, as usual, evince the sound knowledge and legal experience of the writers under whose management the journal is now published,—and the opening one, on the "Power of a Colonial Parliament to Imprison for Contempt," embraces an amount of interesting record from opinions of high authorities, upon which the author is led to conclude that the power to commit for contempt cannot justly be exercised by the Provincial Parliament. The other principal articles are—"Remuneration to Witnesses in Criminal Cases," "Law Reforms of the Session—General Review," "University of Toronto—Law Faculty," "Historical Sketch of the Constitution, Laws and legal Tribunals of Canada." An original essay on the latter subject is to be commenced in the next issue, and continued monthly till completed, and it is promised that the aim of the writer will be to narrate—not to discuss. His materials are, we are informed, the best that can be had, consisting of several French and English Manuscripts now out of print. To this may be added all the information that can be found in Edicts, Arrests, and Ordinances of the French Government and of the Province of Quebec together with the Ordonnances and Acts of Parliament of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada. No pains are to be spared, either in research or compilation, that can be made tributary to the object of the writer. The period embraced will be nearly three centuries—that is, from the settlement of Canada by the French to the present day. This is a subject so fruitful in details of a most interesting character, that if the promises referred to are carried out—as we have every reason to expect they will, from the deservedly high reputation of the editors—the Law Journal will considerably increase its popularity as a reliable record.—Colonist, May, 14th, 1858.

This is a very useful monthly, containing reports of important law cases, and general information connected with the administration of justice in Upper Canada. Although more particularly intended for the profession, yet every man of business may learn much from it that may be of real advantage to him. It has hitherto been published in Barrie, but will henceforth be in Toronto. We rejoice to see that Robert A. Harrison, Esq., B. C. L., is to be connected with the journal. He is a young gentleman that has already highly distinguished himself in his profession, and with literary talents of no ordinary kind, he will prove to be of great advantage to the Law Journal.—Brampton Times.

We are pleased to notice that this able monthly is, for the future, to be edited and published in Toronto, and that Robert A. Harrison, Esq., B. C. L., is become a joint Editor. His accession to the editorial staff must prove to the profession to whom he is now so well known as the author of so many works in general use, no small gain. With Mr. Harrison is associated W. D. Ardagh, Esq., who has for some time been favorably known as an Editor of the Journal. Notwithstanding the public caution of the Journal in Barrie, it has under the management of the Hon. James Patton acquired a very wide and extended circulation. Now that it is to be published in Toronto, it is reasonable to expect that its circulation will be increased. It is a paper which should be in the hands of every Judge, Lawyer, Coroner, Magistrate, Clerk, and Bailiff in Upper Canada. We hope, however, that the conductors will see fit to widen the list of their exchanges and so increase the circle of their usefulness.

It is a great mistake to suppose that Judges, Lawyers, Division Court Clerks, or Bailiffs are the sole persons interested in the administration of justice. The public at large have a deep interest in, and feel a lively sympathy with the sentiments of a writer who propounds measures of law reform calculated to advance the public good. No discussion however well attended upon subjects of legal interest, can be satisfactorily carried on by the lay press.

The public require to be informed not only as to the existence of an abuse which needs a remedy, but as to the nature of the remedy required. For such information the more proper and more prudent course is to turn to the columns of a newspaper conducted by men whose whole lives and training peculiarly best them for the expression of sound views. The number of the Journal before us which is that for August is replete with legal lore. The Editorial Department bears marked evidence of knowledge and ability.—Toronto Times.

Somewhere it has been said that to know a people thoroughly, it is necessary to study their laws—to ascertain how life and property are protected. This ably conducted Journal tells us how the laws enacted by government are administered in Upper Canada. It tells us—what everybody knows—that law is expensive, and it adds that cheap justice is a curse, the expense of the law being the price of liberty. Both assertions are certainly true, yet a litigious and quarrelsome spirit is not invariably the result of that consciousness which belongs to such men as those who, under any circumstances, and at whatever cost, will assert their rights. It is not our purpose to review the Journal, but to praise it; seeing that praise is deserved. The articles are well written, the reports of cases are interesting, and the general information is such, that the Journal ought not only to be read, but studied by the members of the bar, the magistracy, the learned professions generally, and by the merchant.

The Law Journal is beautifully printed on excellent paper, and, indeed, equals in its typographical appearance, the legal record published in the metropolis of the United Kingdom. $4 a year is a very inconsiderable sum for so much valuable information as the Law Journal contains.—Port Hope Atlas.

We have to return our thanks to the conductors (or publishers, we do not know which) of this valuable publication for the present January number, together with an ample index for, and list of cases reported and cited in the second volume of these reports for the year 1856.

The ability with which this highly important and useful periodical is conducted by W. D. Ardagh and Robert A. Harrison, B. C. L., Esquires, Barristers at Law, reflects the greatest credit upon these gentlemen, and shows that the esteem in which they are held by their professional conferees and the public, is deservedly merited and nothing more than they are entitled to. We have much pleasure in earnestly recommending the members of the bar for this section of the Province to support the Upper Canada Law Journal, by their subscriptions,—taking leave to assure them that it is well worthy of it, and that they will find it a valuable acquisition to their libraries as a legal work of reference and of high authority. It is printed and published by Messrs. Maclear, Thomas & Co., of King Street East, Toronto, and the typographical portion is very creditable to that firm.—Quebec Mercury.

In its first number of the fourth volume this interesting and valuable publication comes to us highly improved in appearance, with a much wider range of editorial matter than formerly. The Journal has entered upon a broader career of utility, grappling with the higher branches of law, and lending the strength of a full, fresh intelligence, to the consideration of some very grave wants in our civil code. The necessity of an equitable and efficient "Bankruptcy Law" is discussed in an able article, instructive with astute and profound thought, coupled with much clear, subtle, legal discrimination.

It is the intention of the Proprietors to institute in the pages of the Journal a "Magistrate's Manual"—provided that that body meet the project in the proper spirit, and contribute an adequate subscription list to warrant the undertaking. In prosecuting this contemplation, could not fail to be productive of incalculable advantage, as well to the community as to the Magistracy. We sincerely hope that this latter body will bestow a generous patronage, where so laudable an effort is made for their advantage.

The Law Journal is presided over by W. D. Ardagh, and R. A. Harrison, B. C. L., Barristers-at-Law. It is a periodical that can proudly compare with any legal publication on this Continent. We wish it every success.—Catholic Citizen.

This Journal which is published monthly, appears this week much improved in size, appearance and matter. It was formerly published in Barrie, but has for some numbers back been published in Toronto, and has acquired aid in the editorial staff by the addition of Mr. Harrison, who is well known in the profession from his numerous publications on legal subjects. Under the management of Mr. Ardagh and Mr. Harrison, this Journal promises fair to become an important publication, not merely to the legal profession, but to other important classes of the community, as particular attention is given to Municipal affairs, County Courts and Division Courts, Magistrates' duties also receive a considerable share of consideration. It will contain original treatises and essays on law subjects, written expressly for the Journal, besides reports from the Superior Courts of Common Law and the Court of Chancery. Proper selections will also be made from English periodicals. To the profession the reports from Chambers of decisions under the Common Law Procedure Acts, and the general practice, are of particular interest. These the Journal supplies, being formerly reported by Mr. F. Moore Benson, and latterly by Mr. C. E. English, M. A. We would advise all municipal officers, Division Courts officers, Magistrates, and particularly the profession, to patronize this publication, as it cannot be sustained without their aid. The subscription is only $4 a year in advance.—Leader.
