

HENDRIE LIMITS WITHDRAWN.
 Timber limits on the Upper Ottawa river, owned by William Hendrie, of Hamilton, and containing about 272 square miles, were offered for sale by auction at the Russell House, Ottawa, on December 17th. Mr. Peter Ryan wielded the hammer. The bidding started at $100,000 and advanced to $130,000, at which price the limits were withdrawn, the reserved bid not having been reached. The limits are located beyond Lake Temiskaming, and the time which would be required to float the logs to the Ottawa mills is believed to be responsible for the indisposition of lumbermen to acquire them.
