This is our third year doing business with DAUCHY & Co., Advertising Agents, 75 Fulton Street, New York. A personal inspection of their vast establishment, and a personal acquaintance with the Messrs. Dauchy, gives us the opportunity to say they are reliable, clever gentlemen.

Dauchy & Co. are among our heaviest advertisers, running from one to two columns in our paper the year round. We have found them prompt in payment, obliging and courteous in all their dealings, and we take pleasure in commending to our brethren of the craft the advertising firm of Dauchy & Co., as every way worthy of trust and confidence.

ADVERTISING AGENCY.—Among the most reliable and enterprising of our Advertising Agencies is the well-known firm of DAUCHY & Co., New York, with whom we have had dealings for several years, and to whose promptitude in meeting their engagements we take pleasure in bearing the most unequivocal testimony. They are energetic and trustworthy business men, whom we can recommend to our brethren of the press, and to business men generally.
