NEXT WEEK—BUSINESS BEFORE PLEASURE. Inside Facts, No. 1. Ten years ago Montague Glass began a series of stories telling the humor and pathos in the lives of Abe Potash and Maurice Perimeter, partners in the cloak and suit business. Six years ago theatrical men talked of dramatizing Abe and Maurice, but none was willing to produce the play except A. H. Woods. And even he feared the public wouldn't appreciate the humor side of the partners. However, this far the profits from three Potash and Perimeter plays total more than $125,000.
