SAYS SHAVE REFUSED;

WINDSOR, Nov. 21.—Local veterans say they intend to investigate the case of a negro soldier in uniform who was refused service in three barber shops in Windsor.

Two nights ago the negro appealed to a member of the soldiers' re-establishment committee because he declared he had been unable to find a barber shop in the city which would shave him. The officials interviewed barbers, who said they would remain firm in their attitude. Members of the G.W.V.A. today stated they were not in favor of action by the veterans in the matter as they believed the color question too vital to interfere with here in the north.
