ANNEXATION TERMS NOT YET AGREED ON

Civic Committee and Barton Township Council Unable to Get Together - Day's Doings.

HAMILTON, Oct. 29.-(Special.)-The meeting this evening between the civic committee and the councillors of Barton Township on the terms of the proposed annexation was one long angle. W. A. H. Duff, solicitor, Jid the talking for the tewnship, and Mayor McLaren and City Solicitor Waddell for the city. The aldermen filed out one by one until there were but the mayor, the solicitors and the township council present. They could scarcely agree on a single term. The fit yor refused to discuss any parts of the agreement but those afafter the annexation takes place. One clause provides that the city must carry out the present contracts with the teachers of the Ottawa and Trolley-street schools, which will be taken over by the city, and Mr. Waddell said the teachers were already butof education for increases of salary. The only real result of the conference was the suggestion of a hasis of set-tlement of what is a "reasonable"

B. Dewar, the manager, with a letter purporting to be signed by the bank's Regina manager. The signature was typewritten, and Mr. Dewar received several epistles of the same kind, notifying him that Vale would call on him, and that the had £6000 pounds on deposit. When Vale called this morning he said he would be satisfied with $6000. It is thought that he is simple-minded.

David S. Burn, formerly David S. "Icidd of Toronto, before sailing for Australia to claim the fortune that he says David S. Burn left him, called up Truancy Officer Hunter and requested the officer to accompany him. The officer had taken charge of Kidd's son, twho is known as the "Yellow Kidd." Nursing-at-Home Mission. The good work that has been carried on by the Nursing-at-Home Mission meeting during the last six months was outlined in the reports submitted at the meeting held in the Mission Hall, Laplante avenue, yesterday afterneon. The chair was occupied by Mrs. Gzowski. The report of the sectedary, Mrs. Turnbull, showed that the nurses had paid 4801 visits in caring for the practice of exiling prisoners to 572 patients. In the dispensity de-partment 2149 cases were treated. Special mention was made of the great need for infants' clothing in the home.

The income of the mission for the six months was $1782, and the expenditure $1779. The fresh air department sent 702 children to the country at a cost of a little less than a dollar a
