

"School days, school days,
Dear old Golden Rule days,
Readin' an' writin' an' 'rithmetic
Taught to the tune of the hickory stick
You were my queen in calico,
I was your bashful, barefoot beau,
When you wrote on my slate, 'I love you, Joe,'
When we were a couple of kids!"

OAK HALL

Announcing Our Fall Showing of New Styles in

Smart School Suits For Boys

In announcing the arrival of our new and complete stock of suits for boys in time for the opening of school and college we would remind you that Oak Hall has for nearly fifty years specialized on good clothes for boys. Thousands of the successful business and professional men of Canada recall with pleasure how when they were lads attending country and village, town and city schools their parents bought for them "Oak Hall Suits." And mighty good suits they were, too! They wore like iron and kept their shape while pulled about in the rough-and-tumble games of the old school yard!

The suits we are showing to-day are just as good—probably a lot better. Certainly better in style and finish, for the boys of to-day want good looking suits. You'll say these suits are the best you've ever seen. None quite like them anywhere else in Toronto.

Bring your boys down now and get their complete outfits for school opening. We have all the styles of suits both boys and parent like, in all kinds and shades of material.

ELWOOD CLEARED OF ALL SUSPICION

Warrant is Withdrawn After Identification Fails—Considers Action for Loss.

Dewitt C. Elwood, who came to this city voluntarily from Miami, Florida, to clear himself of being implicated in the Rosenthal jewelry robbery, was yesterday vindicated of all suspicion and the warrant which was laid against him withdrawn by Crown Attorney Corley. Elwood, his attorney and two friends, prosecuting attorney of Pine County, Florida, appeared at police headquarters at 10 o'clock yesterday morning when the last suspicion against the young man was cleared. Elwood himself made the suggestion that the Salvation Army tunic and hat, worn by one of the robbers and which were recovered by the police, be produced so that he could try them on. His request was complied with and neither of the two articles of wearing apparel fitted the young man. This fact was sufficient to satisfy Inspector Guthrie and Rosenthal, and the charge was withdrawn, which was done. Rosenthal, Edward Crowe, Rosenthal's watchmaker, and several others who saw the robbers, failed to identify Elwood as being one of them.

In order to clear his name Elwood has gone to considerable expense. He estimated that this would be close upon $4500, and he is considering taking action against Mr. Rosenthal and the local police to seek reimbursement for his expenditure.

Elwood's statement.

"This attack on my character and the warrant causing my arrest in Miami, has been a big injustice to me," stated Mr. Elwood, after leaving police headquarters yesterday. "It is a serious thing to me to be accused of a crime when I was not even in Toronto when it happened. I have suffered considerable financial loss, to say nothing of time, in searching for proofs of my travels. I feel that I should be reimbursed for the expenses. I engaged three lawyers besides securing legal assistance in several cities in United States, also engaging other assistance in tracing my movements. When I go back to Miami I will have to face all my friends. I have large business interests there besides myself. Some time or other someone will be saying that I was a robber and I will not be able to get credit. The banks in Miami will be both to trust me. No one can imagine my position just because I happened to be in Toronto. My voluntary return to Toronto shows that I had no connection with the crime; also the failure of Rosenthal to identify me. I guess I am done for now. It would be different in a large city where I could gain new friends, but Miami is a small place and everyone knows me."

Lloyd George, at Lucerne,
Says That is Only Official Meeting Arranged.

Lucerne, Switzerland, Aug. 19.—Mr. David Lloyd George, the British prime minister, arrived in Lucerne this afternoon. To the correspondent of the Associated Press he said that up to the present the only official meeting that had been arranged was one with Signor Giolitti, the Italian premier. This would probably take place next Monday. No visits from Dr. Walter Simons, the German chancellor of Prince Faisal, King of Syria, had as yet been arranged, he added.

The private secretary of Mr. Lloyd George asserted today that there was no truth in the report that the premier intended to visit the United States and Canada in October. He said, however, that the premier hoped to make a visit there next year if the political situation is improved.
