

GRAYS ARE WHITEWASHED IN THE MORNING FIXTURE

Maxwell Tightened Up in the Pinches—Error Helped the Leafs to Their First Run—Providence Beaten Two to Nothing—The Game.

ISLAND STADIUM, May 24.—(Staff Correspondence)—The holiday, combined with good baseball weather, brought out a large crowd in the morning to see the third game between the Grays and the Leafs. They saw a splendid contest, close and exciting all the way, with the home team finally emerging victorious by the score of 2 to 0.

The visitors outbatted the Leafs three to one, but the hits were not there when they were needed. Maxwell, who pitched for Toronto, was touched up pretty badly, but always succeeded in extricating himself without a score. Moran, on the other hand, was a complete puzzle, but an error at a critical moment let in one run.

He was hurt in the first part of the seventh and had to quit, Mitchell taking his place. The latter pitched good ball also, but the one charity he gave, combined with a single, scored run number two.

The game: First Inning. Providence—Platte fanned, McConnell made a fine made in the bunt of a slow ball, fielding it just in time. Shean walked. Shean was caught off first by Maxwell and was out. O'Hara flied to Platte. No runs, no hits, no errors.

TORONTO—Platte flied to McConnell; O'Hara flied to Platte; Bradley sent a high fly to Powell. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning. Providence—O'Hara got McIntyre's fly near the foul line. Holly flied. E. O'Neil's grounder and cut him off. Bauman lifted a fly to Platte. No runs, no hits, no errors.

TORONTO—Jordan struck out; Shean retired Northern on a fly. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Providence—McDermott walked; J. O'Neil sacrificed Graham to Jordan; McDermott grounded to McConnell and went out at first. Platte was passed and stole second. No runs, no hits, no errors.

TORONTO—McConnell dumped the ball along the third base line and was retired. Moran to E. O'Neil; Holly got the first hit, a single to centre, he stole second, beating the throw. Powell came in fast to get Maxwell's short fly. Platte flied to Bauman, who threw high to first, the ball going to the stand. Holly scored and E. O'Neil made a bad throw to second to get Platte, who continued to third. O'Hara lifted a fly to Bauman. One run, one hit, two errors.

Providence—Shean hit one of Maxwell's slow ones and drove it to left; McIntyre lined to Holly; E. O'Neil grounded to Bradley and died at first; Bauman was passed; McDermott hit to Holly, who fumbled and the bases were filled; J. O'Neil struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

TORONTO—Bradley pounced to pitcher and went out easily; Jordan slid to E. O'Neil; Northern drove to right. Platte trying to make the catch, was the result that the ball went to the bleachers. Northern making third. Graham grounded to McDermott and was retired at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.
