

RECENT WEDDINGS

Bellevue-Kinney.
A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Hicks, of Bridgetown, yesterday, when their sister, Miss Josephine Latelle Kinney, daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Kinney, was united in marriage to George V. Bellevue of Waterville. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, while her nephews performed the duties of page and ring-bearer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Freestone, assisted by Rev. W. H. Langille. The wedding march was played by Mrs. J. H. Freestone. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Jane Kinney of San Francisco, cousin of the bride, and G. W. C. Kinney of Calgary, brother of the bride.

STUDENTS' MOCK TRIAL.
Charged with obtaining money under false pretences, a law student was arraigned in the high court of competent jurisdiction over the King's College law students last evening and, after a fair and impartial trial before Hon. R. J. Ritchie, the accused was found guilty and sentence was imposed forthwith.

His honor dealt lightly with the prisoner in view of the fact, adduced in evidence, that the accused had acted in good faith. The occasion for this was the weekly meeting of the law students, which was turned into a mock trial with Magistrate Ritchie proving himself to be the youngest old law student present. His many witticisms and sallies, interspersed between sound legal advice, roused uproars of merriment and when a hearty vote of thanks was tendered him, three cheers and a tiger were thrown in for additional measure. In reply, his honor thanked the students and said he would be glad to spend another evening with them.

Toronto, Dec. 8.—Thomas C. Irving, formerly general manager of Bradstreet's Mercantile Agency for Canada, is dead at his home here, seventy-two years old. He retired from the management of Bradstreet's about two years ago on account of ill-health.

It's a Feeling of the Times to
"GIVE A GARMENT FOR XMAS"

Not that it's any different from any other Christmas but there seems to be the wish for something that one can get the most use out of. Then again there is such a tremendous difference in prices of wearing apparel over last year that this alone forms a pleasant surprise. You may know also that many people have been just a little timid about buying garments for themselves this season. Your mother, sister, cousin or even wife may be one of these and would heartily welcome a pretty dress, coat, suit or blouse.

You can't make any mistake in investing your Christmas money in this way anyhow. We will help you out in selecting what is smart and pleasing. Try it!

Help!

The five most difficult names on your Christmas list—still unaccounted for. You can find the answer here:

Letty's Husband

It's hard to buy a gift for him. No doubt in the world but he would like a small piece of baggage, a motor rug, a wooden or silk scarf, book ends, ash tray, or perhaps an extra pair of gloves.

Grandmother

It must be something very good looking and very suitable so, what about:—A black silk undershirt, some fine linen handkerchiefs, a leather envelope purse or a nice hand bag. We have hostess that Grandmother would like too.

Polly

To be sure Polly has everything under the sun now, but, you'll strike the right note if you buy her a beaded grille for her straight frock, a Spanish comb to decorate her hair, a quill pen for her desk, a sweet hay basket for her fancy work, or if you want to be exactly sure, a clover leaf hand bag of velvet or durlin.
