Half a dozen years ago Dr. W. F. Roberts had no other distinction than that of a practising physician in St. John who was a keen student of all that pertained to public health and lamented the lack of interest in the whole subject in his native province. He saw visions of what might and should be, and continually sought fuller information. Then ancial interest not nolly of free-trade came his entry into politics, with the assurance that if his party were successful a public health measure of real value would be adopted.

HON. DR. ROBERTS

The election of Hon. Dr. Roberts as president of the Canadian Health Association is a deserved tribute to a man who has done a great deal in a very few years for the advancement of the cause of public health on this continent. The example of New Brunswick has been cited in other provinces of Canada and throughout the United States, and throughout the United States, and has greatly encouraged and stimulated has greatly encouraged and stimulated those who sought to introduce progressive health measures and arouse a more general interest in all matters pretaining.

And Tony had just become engaged to such a work an example for The Empire and what their decades followed the beautiful custom of decorating on May 30 the graves of its fallen sailors and soldiers. What an inspiration at his time.

On Memorial Day the American people remember their dead and what their death has signified to the nation. Why should not the far-flung Empire worried. You know Marcelle is in enthusiast always. Once it was for horses, once for dogs, once prize poultry, once Angora cats. Now, am I a regular prosperity. Already we are seeing the products of field and factory piling up in granary and warehouse. The real problem, therefore, is the maintenance of the same plan and use the same thought of the world's population and area kept in mind the memory of their sailor and soldiers.

1834—May 19—1921 Our 87th Birthday

IN ANNOUNCING the 87th Anniversary of the establishment of our business we are well aware that age counts for little unless the experience gained and strength acquired make for better service and greater usefulness. These are the days of high speed, high tension and greater responsibilities. Wide awake new methods are necessary to meet the demands of modern business, and we are keeping right up to the times as to methods and the use of modern machinery.

We like to think, too, of our business associates as our friends. We like to feel that in a broad sense our customers are our partners; that our success is but the reflection and the result of their good-will and patronage. We shall strive to continue to deserve your esteemed patronage with meritorious goods and courteous treatment.
