FORTY HOURS.
The Forty hours devotion was started in St. Peter's church yesterday morning with a solemn high mass. Last evening the services consisted of the recitation of the rosary, solemn vespers, devotions to the most Blessed Sacrament and solemn benediction. Rev. J. Woods, C. S. R., was celebrant, Rev. E. Scully, C. S. R., deacon, Rev. G. Coffin, C. S. R., sub-deacon, and Rev. D. Coll, C. S. R., master of ceremonies.

FARRAR-MATHESON.
A wedding of interest to a great many friends took place on Saturday evening at the home of the officiating clergyman, 88 Duke street, when Rev. P. S. Dowling united in marriage Dr. I. K. Farrar, a popular young dentist of this city, to Miss Marjorie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Matheson of Port Elgin. Dr. J. C. Doore and Dr. F. W. Stevenson were witnesses. Dr. and Mrs. Farrar left on the late train on Saturday night for a honeymoon trip and on their return will reside in the city. Doctor Farrar saw service overseas and on his return to Canada was stationed in the dental clinic at the local army. Recently he opened an office in King street. Both he and his bride have many friends who will wish them much happiness.
