DYKEMAN'S

A Guaranteed Kid Glove at 69c.

is an unusual thing. Having sold over a thousand pairs of this particular glove in the last year we are justified in guaranteeing it. Although we make but little profit we can afford to stand back of every pair. If they are defective in any way you can bring them back and get another pair and there is no haggling over it, providing of course, that it is the gloves fault. They come in an excellent assortment of tan shades, and the sizes run from 3-3 1/2 to 7-1 1/2. The price is only 69 cents and after wearing them you will say they are better than the many $1.00 gloves.

This is the safest store from which to buy your HOSIERY

Nothing is more disappointing than a poor quality of hosiery, and there are few things in which it is so difficult for anyone but an expert to distinguish the worthy from the unworthy.

We protect the patrons of our hosiery department from dissatisfaction by bundling only qualities that we know to be trustworthy. We buy from only reliable makers, and subject every purchase to a minute examination, rejecting every pair of stockings that does not come up to the high standard we've set for ourselves.

We have stockings for as little as 25c. and for as much as $1.50. Every pair from the lowest to the highest price is a thoroughly good quality which is certain to prove eminently satisfactory.

THINK HUSKY HALIFAX LAD RAN AWAY WITH THE CIRCUS

Chief Clark Was Asked to Locate Young Man, But There Was No Sign of Him

When the old time circus was wont to visit town at least half the small boys would change their ambitions from that of being engineers to that of being horseback riders or acrobats. That the same glamour still clings to the tinsel covered coaches and the big side shows is clear from a letter which Chief of Police Clarke has received from Chief Rudland of Halifax. A boy called John Dunn, the letter says, ran off with Howe's Big Show and has not been heard from since. The lad was about fifteen years of age, with brown eyes, light hair and dark complexion. He was five feet seven inches tall, weighed one hundred and fifty pounds, and was wearing a soft felt hat, yellow shirt and black overalls when he left home. The city police made a search yesterday, but the boy kept out of the way if he was with the circus, and he could not be located. The managers said that they had no desire to keep the lad and if they found him would send him back to Halifax at once.

DEATH ENDS LONG BUSINESS CAREER OF JAMES W. LEE

For Sixty Years He Had Carried on Hardware and Store Trade

A long business career in this city ended this morning when James W. Lee passed away at his home, 131 Orange street. Born in Ireland some eighty years ago, Mr. Lee was brought here when he was but a child of six. In his early manhood he started business as a hardware and store dealer and was very successful. For many years he was established in Princess street, later in Charlotte and latterly in Orange street. He leaves a record honorable as well as lengthy.

Mr. Lee had not been in very good health for some time but he was able to make a visit to New York from which city he returned only a few days ago. He is survived by a brother in the United States and two daughters—Miss Marguerite, a nurse in training in the General Public Hospital, and Miss Victoria, stenographer with O. H. Warwick Co. Ltd. They will have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. Mr. Lee's funeral will be at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon from his late residence, with service at two o'clock.

SON OF SIR LEONARD TILLEY DEAD AT STE ANNE DE BELLEVUE

A telegram was received last evening announcing the death of L. A. Tilley, second son of the late Sir S. L. Tilley. Mr. Tilley had been in poor health for some time past. He had been spending part of the summer at St. Anne de Bellevue and there he died.

Mr. Tilley was a well known grain merchant at one time residing and doing business in Toronto and afterwards in Montreal and Winnipeg. He married Miss Purdy of St. John, who died before him.

DREDGE AND TUG STILL HELD

An Eastport despatch of yesterday to the Bangor Commercial says: "There were no new developments in the County Bay troubles at St. John, N. B., and in the meantime the valuable tug Muscollonge and the dredge McMartin are still at anchor in Rumer's bay near Lunenburg, where they were attached by the Halcyon-Hampton Dredging Co. of Ogdensburg, N. Y. for a claim against the Norton Griffiths Dredging Co. Ltd., of Montreal. Capt. Boyer and a crew of 27 men are on board and are enjoying the balmy breezes of old Passamaquoddy while awaiting further orders."

PILE IT UP AGAINST FINN

Carl Finerose, a Finn, who was arrested on Saturday on charge of being drunk and using threatening language to the Greek Evangelos Chrysler, had another charge of assault brought against him this morning. George Lewis, of the post office staff, took the stand and said that when Finerose was put out of the Greek's he and his wife were walking along Dock street, near the store. Finerose had jumped into them and knocked Mrs. Lewis down. Lewis had then called Brennan Rankine to take charge of Finerose. Jean Mason, who is employed in Chrysler's fruit store, gave evidence of what had taken place in the shop. She said that the Finn had said he had a knife which he intended to use on the proprietor, but had not drawn it. Finerose was remanded.

STILL NOTHING DEFINITE ABOUT VALLEY ROUTE

Premier Flanning Apparently Believes it Will Cross River at the Mistake

A member of the St. John Board of Trade who recently wrote to Premier Flanning in regard to the Valley railway route and construction has received a reply which is now in the hands of the council of the board. In it Hon. Mr. Flanning says the route of the Valley line from Gagetown to The Mistake has been "approved" and that the engineers are still busy with estimates and plans for the bridges. He says also that the route from Centerville to Andover has been forwarded to the dominion government for approval.

While the letter is guarded in tone, the inference fairly to be drawn is that Mr. Flanning believes the road will reach St. John by crossing the river at The Mistake. Apparently, however, that is not yet a certainty and the time for the completion of the bridges is evidently still unsettled, as is the method of financing them.

LOOK FINE IN THEIR MARCH TO DEPOT TO ATTEND PICNIC

Cathedral Sunday School Event of the Year at Torryburn Today—The Little Ones' Parade

The appearance of "Old Sol" was anxiously looked for this morning by the hundreds of little ones who are today having the time of their lives at the annual Cathedral Sunday school picnic on the grounds at Torryburn. His warm, bright rays were heartily welcomed and caused the bells in the Cathedral tower to peal forth the gladdest signal that the picnic would be held today—let all the youngsters prepare.

Between 800 and 400 youngsters, headed by the City Comet Band, paraded from St. Malachi's hall to the Union Depot, where they took the train for Torryburn. They marched along in their neat dresses and suits, happiness and joy outstanding upon their bright little faces, and bent on enjoying themselves to the full limit, for this was their day. Some of them could just about tolerate the full distance, but what's the odds? They were going to go to the Bishop's Picnic, no matter what the obstacles were, and they went.

The band, under direction of Bandmaster Waddington, played several spirited marching tunes as they walked along to the depot. They will give a programme at the grounds throughout the day. The little children of the Sunday school were marshalled under the care of the priests, who accompanied them to see that no danger befell them. The clergymen escorting the youngsters outstanding upon their bright little faces, and bent on enjoying themselves to the full limit, for this was their day. Some of them could just about tolerate the full distance, but what's the odds? They were going to go to the Bishop's Picnic, no matter what the obstacles were, and they went.

On arrival at the grounds the picknickers found things in shape for a general good time. An advance committee of workers had gone there early this morning and made ready for their coming, so that the booths and amusements were soon in full swing. With so fine a day hundreds journeyed to the picnic grounds on the noon and early afternoon trains.
