LOCAL NEWS

NOT VERY PLEASANT

There was a very objectionable odor caused last night by a fire which started in the garbage barrel at the corner of South Market and Charlotte streets. The waste in the barrel was allowed to burn itself out and produced an odor that was by no means pleasing.

FAMED HALIFAX OARSMAN OF THE SEVENTIES IS DEAD

William Ross Passes Away at the Age of Sixty-Four—His Crew Beat the Logans of St. John

Wm. Ross, of Halifax, senior member of the famed Ross-Foley crew, died in Halifax yesterday. He was 64 years of age and has undergone three operations. He was in his sixty-fourth year. For years he kept a hat store in Grandville street, but retired from that business some ten years ago, and was appointed exchange broker at the immigration office.

The Ross-Foley crew were a pride to Haligonians. There were no shells in those days, the course were always several miles in length and the Ross-Foley starting as amateurs defeated all local opponents and afterwards rowing professional, continued their unbeaten career, defeating among others the crack Logan crew at St. John. Their first defeat was by the Smith-Nickerson team, which the following year established the world's record for three miles at the Centennial Regatta, Philadelphia.

Mr. Ross was the senior member of the four, and those with him were Robert J. Foley, John H. Hutton and Arthur (now Captain) Marvin Hutton. John H. retired in 1873. Michael Inglis replaced him, and Captain Marvin retired in 1875, and John Mann took his place. Not only Mr. Ross' ability as an oarsman, but his keen judgment, his knowledge of equating rigging boats, of having the faculty of knowing what to do at the proper moment, were always recognized by the others. He was, however, very modest about his abilities in this respect, and always ready to give credit to others.

After the crew retired from rowing, Mr. Ross took the keenest interest to advance aquatic sports, both professional and amateur. He was a member of the Halifax Rowing Association, and his well known fairness, his experience, his knowledge of the water, made him greatly in demand to referee aquatic events. He was referee at the last big carnival regatta at Halifax.

A NEW BRUNSWICK NURSE WEDS SCULPTOR WHO WAS DIVORCED

Miss Anna Benjamin Bride of Frank E. Elwell in New Jersey

Jersey City, N. J., June 25—Announcement of the marriage of Frank Edwin Elwell, a sculptor, to Miss Anna Benjamin, of New Brunswick, Canada, today came as a surprise to the artist's friends. Mr. Elwell was badly injured in a fall about six months ago, and Miss Benjamin, a trained nurse, was engaged to care for him. They will spend their honeymoon in Canada.

Mr. Elwell's first wife obtained a divorce last year on the ground of desertion.

CATHEDRAL WEDDING

A wedding of much interest was solemnized in the cathedral at a quarter to six this morning, when Miss Agnes DeForest was united in marriage to John Perry. A large crowd gathered to witness the ceremony. The bride wore a handsome suit of lawn silk with black hat. She was escorted by her sister, Miss Alice DeForest, who was dressed in a navy blue suit with black hat. The groom was assisted by Thomas Graham. The bride received many handsome gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry left this morning on a honeymoon trip to Boston, New York, and other cities in the United States and on their return will reside in this city.

In St. Bernard's church, Moncton, Daniel Landry of Amherst, was united in marriage to Miss Salome M. LeBlanc, daughter of Mrs. Denis J. LeBlanc, of Moncton. In St. Dunstan's church, Fredericton, Miss Cora Graham, daughter of Thomas Graham, and Arthur McMorley were united in marriage.

TODAY'S POLICE COURT

It has been unusually quiet in police circles during the last few days and the court has had very few prisoners to deal with. This morning there was one charged with drunkenness and he was fined $8 or two months in jail.

Margaret Sullivan, who has been serving a term of two months in jail was allowed to go this morning, as friends in Moncton had asked her release and had promised to take care of her.

Percy Wright, who was arrested some time ago for breaking into a shoe shine shop in Union street and stealing $81 was allowed to go on suspended sentence. His uncle is to take him west with him. The magistrate warned him that if ever he misbehaved himself again, he would be sent back and sent to the Industrial Home for four years.

James Daly, arrested last night on begging charge and he belonged to British Columbia. He was allowed to go on condition that he take this morning's train and go as far as it as his money will permit.

WANT FOXES REGISTERED

Charlottetown Patriot.—The fox ranchers of this province are calling out for the establishment of some system of registration as is done in the case of horses and cattle. The inducement is assuming such dimensions, and the danger from the introduction of inferior stock from the mainland is so great that some attention must be provided.

BODY OF FRED FLAHERTY IS RECOVERED

Missing Man Found Drowned in Magee's Slip This Morning—Disappeared on June 8

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Frederick J. Flaherty from his home in Charles street seventeen days ago, however, it was explained by Coroner Berryman, who practically decided that the cuts and bruises would hardly indicate foul play. He left his home on the night of June 8 saying that he was going out to get shaved. He was a young man of very exemplary habits and when he did not return that night, his people began to worry about his safety. Word was sent around to different towns in the province and elsewhere where friends of the family resided. It was thought for a time that he had gone to Boston to visit a brother, as he had told his brother that he intended going to Boston. But there was no word from the anxious ones until today.

The deceased was only twenty-seven years of age. He was employed with William Daley, beer manufacturer in Brussels street. He resided with his widowed mother in Charles street and bore an excellent character in the community. His father, John S. Flaherty died here only about two months ago. Besides his mother, he is survived by two brothers and three sisters. The brothers are Frank and William of this city, the daughters are Mrs. W. J. Quigg of Fairville, Miss Ethel and Miss Margaret at home.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from P. Fitzpatrick's undertaking rooms in Waterloo street.

THE DEAD WHO ARE ALIVE AGAIN AND LOST WHO ARE FOUND

Here's a St. Johner Who Wants to be Back For Old Home Week—Enthusiased Over Progress

The benefit the city is receiving in addition to the efforts of the 1912 Club in connection with the Back to New Brunswick Week is illustrated by the letters which are being received daily by the secretary of the board of trade. This movement, more than anything else, is helping to make known from one end of the continent to the other the tremendous development, which is taking place in St. John and the quality secured, already gives promise of substantial and lasting results. One of the latest letters follows.

Sault Ste. Marie, Canada, June 22nd, 1912.

W. E. Anderson, Esq., Secretary Board of Trade St. John, N.B.

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of a circular letter written by you under date of May 25th and addressed to "Our Friends from New Brunswick" in which you start off by apologizing for sending out letters of this description. Well, I do not think you have anything to worry about on that account, as it was checked full of interest to me, as I am sure it must have been to all who were fortunate enough to receive a copy. Why, when I read this, I just felt like sending up a loud holler, "The dead who are alive again, and the lost who are found." Your list of things doing and going to be done is indeed a great one, and doubtless like the snowball it will grow, but even if it didn't, there should be sufficient to satisfy the greatest kicker. I have tried to keep in touch with what was going on, but was not prepared for so much, and therefore am the more delighted.

In addition to your letter, I received a private post card, which being freely translated, reads: "Yo donkey, why don't you come home?" Well, this is all right, but I think it should be supplemented by another, showing the poor devil who is just wild to get home but can't, which might embrace as many as the other, for while thousands will be with you, there would be thousands more if their inclinations were not weighed down by impediments, which could only be overcome by either having the wings of a dove or a shower of gold.

Since reading your letter my mind has been full of the matter, and at night I lay awake, walking through the streets of the dear old city, taking in the old haunts and looking for old friends, who have gone to the other side, and again trying to picture the great changes which have or are about taking place, and especially of the Courtenay Bay transition which has seemed to me like dreams, for until very recently, I thought impractical, if not impossible, and cannot quite reconcile myself to it yet; and with all this comes to me the old and now more than ever true—city motto, "Fortunati Quorum Jam Mensa Surgunt."

I should dearly love to be with you, but falling in this I can only hope that the "Home Coming" may be the success it deserves to be, that you will send me as to the future of the city and province may be more than realized. I shall take it as a favor if you will send me an occasional paper containing the best accounts of your big week.

Very truly yours,
F. A. KING.

An enclosing our last Board of Trade report.
