HOPE TO HAVE MANY NEW MEMBERS AND EXTEND THE WORK

St. Monica's Society Resuming Activities For Winter—Likely Branches on Both Sides of Atlantic

Active work is to be resumed next week by the members of the St. Monica's Society when they will hold their first meeting of the season in the C. M. B. A. rooms, Union street, to which all Catholic women interested in the movement for bettering the conditions of the immigrant to Canada are heartily invited. The society this year expects to transact a volume of immigration business. Up to the present the St. Monica's Society of St. John has had the honor and distinction of leading all Catholic women of the city. They also have the honor and distinction of leading all Catholic women of the city. They also have the honor and distinction of leading all Catholic women of the city.

It is expected that many branches of St. Monica's Society will be formed in other places this year, and with their establishment on both sides of the Atlantic as is now proposed, the objects of the organization will be the better attained. Locally the members hope so to work this year as to increase their membership at least one thousand and with that end in view are asking the co-operation of the Catholic women of the city. They also expect to conduct an extensive publicity campaign to aid in their efforts for the benefit of the immigrants.

CONSTABLE MAY ACT AS AGENT IN CITY COURT

Interesting Point Decided by Judge Landry Today—Other Court Matters

An interesting point of law was decided by Mr. Justice Landry this morning in the case of L. E. Smith vs. Wallace Stillwell, which came up on review from the city court. At the trial the plaintiff did not appear and Constable Heffer, acting in his behalf, signed judgment against the defendant by default. The arguments of the defendant's attorney on review was that a constable could not act as agent for one of the parties in a city court case. This morning His Honor dismissed the review with costs, thus deciding that there was nothing to prevent a constable from appearing as agent in the city court. This question has not arisen since again in the city court, but this is the first time that the matter has ever been submitted to a supreme court judge for a ruling. A. A. Wilson, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and H. W. Robertson for the defendant.

Circuit Court.
The case of Catherine McGowan, adm., vs. Mary R. Warner, an action to recover $3,000 damages for loss of life in a mill, was continued in the circuit court this morning. I. Treacartin and J. Dwyer were examined by the plaintiff after which the hearing was adjourned until this afternoon at 2 o'clock. D. Mullin, K. C., is appearing for the plaintiff and Fred B. Taylor for the defendant.

Chancery Division.
Before Mr. Justice McLeod in chambers, application was made this morning in the case of Teed vs. Crawford, for the continuance of an injunction and the appointment of a receiver with respect to certain mining properties in Queens county. The application was granted. M. G. Teed, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and Ralph St. J. Freeze for the defendant.

Probate Court.
In the probate court today the will of Mrs. Mary L. Short, widow of John D. Short was proved. She gives all her estate to her son Charles K. Short, and nominates him as executor. She died on April 29 last. Her son Charles K. Short died before her. By his will he appointed his wife, Agnes I. Short, executrix and guardian of his children, then infants, five in number. Besides these the next of kin are the four children of her other son, William Short, who also died before her. There is no real estate. The personality consists of $400 and an interest of the deceased in the estate of her father, Hon. Thomas W. Todd, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., the amount of which has not yet been ascertained, and also the sum of something more than $1,000 in the savings bank in the name of the deceased and of a grand-daughter. There being some question as to the ownership of the money it was decided that the same should be administered by the court. The appointment of Silas McDermid, druggist, and he was accordingly sworn in as administrator with the will annexed. Herbert J. Smith is proctor for the petitioner, widow, and Henry H. Pickett proctor for the grand-child.

THE CANADIAN HEAD OF ARMY IS HERE TODAY

Commissioner Rees Says Movement For Booth Memorial Training School For Officers is To be Launched

"One of the matters of special interest to army workers throughout Canada, as well as to those in attendance at the annual congress opening here this evening, will be the launching of the movement for the erection of a fitting memorial to the late beloved leader, General Booth," said Commissioner D. M. Rees, of the Salvation Army, on his arrival in the city this morning on the Atlantic express from Toronto. He was accompanied by Colonel and Mrs. Mapp, who will take their fare here this week after four years' of energetic and efficient service in Canada. Commissioner Rees appeared in the best of health. He expressed himself as being pleased to see the outlook for the progress of the army here and its development throughout Canada. The idea of the erection of a memorial to the late leader was taking deep root amongst all members of the army and the suggestion of building a training college for officers was the form which seemed most favorably approved by those interested. It had been one of the prime projects of the general and many of his endeavors had been centered thereon, but death had interfered with the fulfillment of his desire. Toronto would probably be the location of the college and similar offices would be set up from all parts of Canada for special courses of training in army and social work. He considered it an excellent idea and one which he thought would be greeted with favor in all quarters. An open meeting is to be held tonight in the Citadel in Charlotte street. A hearty welcome will be accorded the commissioner, Colonel and Mrs. Mapp, and the other delegates, numbering in all about 200. On Sunday afternoon in the Opera House Commissioner Rees will deliver an address, and a farewell will be tendered to Colonel Mapp and his wife who have been appointed to a position outside of Canada. At this meeting Senator J. W. Daniel will preside. There will be several meetings tomorrow.

DETECTIVE SAYS MAY BE A THIRD CHARGE AGAINST PARK

Salvation Army Case Taken up Today—Assault Case Out of Saloon Incident

Albert Park, young Englishman who was arrested on Sunday last on the charge of breaking and entering the office of the Canadian Central Milling Company in Dock street, was arraigned in the police court this morning to answer to another charge. This morning he was charged with breaking and entering the Salvation Army headquarters and Metropolitan in Prince William street and stealing $18 a fountain pen, some ferry tickets and several pieces of English silver. He pleaded guilty to stealing $12, but denied taking the rest. He consented to be tried in the police court, and was remanded for sentence.

He has also pleaded guilty to breaking and entering the office of the milling company, and Detective Killen said in court this morning that another charge of breaking and entering would possibly be preferred against him.

Two prisoners charged with drunkenness were fined $8 or two months in jail. Daniel Hawkins, charged with using profane and obscene language on the North Side of King Square last night was remanded. John Davis, arrested on Sunday for using profane language in Charlotte street was fined $8 or two months in jail.

James McKenna was fined $4 for allowing his two horses to run at large in Bentley street. The fine was paid, and Daniel O'Donnell, charged with setting off blasts in Bridge street on which there was not sufficient covering, was told that he was liable to a fine of $20. He was cautioned.

Michael Harley appeared in court to answer to the charge of assaulting a man by throwing a glass of liquor in his face. The defendant is the owner of a licensed saloon in Main street and the assault was alleged to have taken place on Wednesday last. The complainant did not appear in court this morning and the matter was allowed to stand.

The case against Michael George charged with obstructing the sidewalk in Brunel street with a pair of stairs, was allowed to stand over until tomorrow morning.

FLETT BROS.' STORE AT NELSON BURNED

Building and Contents Gone, But Mill Property Saved

Chatham, N. B., Sept. 27.—Fire which broke out in the store of Flett Bros at Nelson some time after midnight destroyed the store and its contents and threatened destruction to the former Flett mill property, now the Jones' property. The night being comparatively calm and with a heavy dew fall the efforts of the fire fighters to keep the blaze to the one building proved successful. The fire was well under way when seen, the store was owned and conducted by Thomas Flett, and was a new one built across the road opposite their old store. It is understood that the insurance amounted to about $100,000 on the goods and the store, and it is thought that the loss will be double this amount.

SEASIDE SEASON ENDS

Sunday will mark the close of the summer season at Seaside Park, and after that day the street car service there will be discontinued for the winter. During the summer the park was well patronized and thousands enjoyed the opportunity to visit what is now generally the only accessible beach around St. John.
