HOW SMITH ELUDED HIS PURSUERS

Eastport Man From Whom He Hired Horse Gives Evidence in Police Court

In the arrest of Charles Lorne Smith yesterday by Detective Killen, one who styled a "slippery customer," was landed by the police. From the evidence of Andrew Stephenson, of Eastport, Me., this morning it was shown that Smith gave him considerable trouble before he located his whereabouts, after hiring a horse and carriage from him on Friday last. Mr. Stephenson said that the prisoner hired the outfit to go to Red Beach, about twenty miles from Eastport. He took a stable boy with him, but the lad returned in about half an hour, saying that his driving companion had thrown him from the carriage and kept on his way.

The owner of the horse set out after him, and followed along the road for twelve miles, only to learn that the object of his search, had driven behind a barn, off the roadway about five miles from the town, and his pursuer had continued the search, until he could not track him at all, but finding later how he had been tricked, Smith, he said, took another road, where there was no telephone connection, and proceeded, across the boundary, Mr. Stephenson following. The story from that time to the arrest was told yesterday.

Smith said today that he would like to be tried in Eastport but His Honor said that this would necessitate extradition papers, and the prisoner would have to go before Judge Forbes, as he was out on suspended sentence from him. He was remanded.

PICKED ST. JOHN TEAM TO PLAY U.N.B.

Good Football Material in Local Fifteen For Thanksgiving Day Match

Arrangements have been completed for picked St. John football team to play the U. N. B. in Fredericton on Thanksgiving day. While a team has not been chosen as yet, it will be picked from the following players: for the back division, William Malcolm, Walter Willis, Roy Drynan, Hazen Howard, George Clarke, Lyle McGowan, Armstrong and Alex. Thorne, and for the forwards, Goodspeed, McKinnon, Leonard, Gardner, Turner, Smith and Greason.

As will be seen from the list a strong team can be picked from these players, one that should be able to give the red and black the game of their lives, even if they do not lower the collegian's colors. Malcolm and Willis are a half line in themselves, and with Drynan and Clark added would make a very strong combination. McGowan and Armstrong in the quarter division look decidedly strong, and with a forward line made up of Goodspeed, Jack McKinnon, Charles Leonard, Stan Smith, Thorne, Gardner, Frank Greason and Turner ought to round out a good team. The fifteen are picked from the Algonquins and Carleton teams.
