

- Q.28 Mr. Wood was there anyone else in your room on the morning of 17th December 1943?
- A.28 You were sir.
- Q.29 What time?
- A.29 0715 hours.
- Q.30 Did you have your money then?
- A.30 I am not sure.
- Q.31 But you asked me later on if I had your wallet?
- A.31 I did sir.
- Q.32 Did you ask anyone else?
- A.32 I did sir. Lieutenant G.H.Murray my room mate.
- Q.33 Why did you ask for Lieutenant Morris to investigate this case?
- A.33 Well as far as I could ascertain there was nothing being done to recover my wallet so I asked if Lieutenant Morris would be permitted to help me.
- Q.34 But as far as you are concerned you could not be certain that you had your wallet on that morning?
- A.34 I am not sure.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

- Q.35 Is it correct Mr. Wood that your inquiries which were made to Capt. Roy and others as to the whereabouts of your purse were made simply because that you did not know where it was?
- A.35 That is right sir. We have often mis-placed valuable articles in our quarters or left them around and someone else would find them and return them to the owner.
