

J. J. HILL SPEAKS ON CANADA

SPRIT OF UNITY
IS STRONG HERE

The Great Railroad King Pre- dicts Big Opportunities in the Dominion.

Few men can see further ahead in trade possibilities than James J. Hill. He is an especially skilled analyst in agricultural and colonization possibilities, and his opinion of our opportunities for trade in Canada is the strongest practical value. Mr. Hill was born in Canada and keeps in close touch with its progress.

With this in mind, Printers' Ink has secured from Mr. Hill an exclusive interview of real importance.

"Canada, West Canada, all that country that is attracting so much attention," says Mr. Hill, "was right there in Adam and Eve's time. The country does not develop itself. Men develop it. Tell me what kind of men Canada is going to produce in the next generation and I will tell you what Canada will be."

"Canada has one advantage over us, in a greater spirit of unity. In many ways there is greater stability of thought in Canada. We may see this in the development of the western part of that country. Her people are more concerned with making progress, less with the popular issues of the day. The Canadians are making great strides. There are a good many things we could learn from them. I do not know of any thing that we need set ourselves up to teach them. They are getting along very well."

"The Americanization of Western Canada? I think it is overstated position. I have not given it much serious thought. It is true enough that there has been much money from the United States invested in Western Canada and a great deal in Eastern Canada also. Why not, if it is a good investment? But there are always conclusions drawn by some in the early stages of any great movement that do not come out right in the end. I think it a matter that may very well be left to work out itself, and I think the Canadians plenty able to take care of themselves without advice from us."

"The wisest man cannot foretell the future of Canada, and I do not want to undertake to do it. But if they are prosperous and progressive now with their resources yet to be developed in many lines, why should they not continue so, and why should not Canadian wealth and influence increase greatly in another generation? There is land and wealth enough in Canada to feed every mouth in Europe."

"The greatest need of this country in another generation or two will be the providing of homes for its people and producing sufficient for them. I have talked of this repeatedly. You may take the population growth of the country for the past generation, and if you assume that the ratio is going to be kept up you will see that we are going to have a mighty big population in this country, before long. The days of our prominence as a wheat-exporting country are gone. Canada is to be the great wheat country. More and more from now on we will have to think about housing and feeding our own people, and not sending our produce to Europe. Certainly I think Canada has a great future from an economic standpoint. One out of every five people born in Canada now live in the United States but Canada is rapidly getting the back, bringing from $5,000 to $20,000 with them."

"Our trade with Canada is exceeded in volume only by that with Germany and Great Britain. In 1907 the aggregate imports and exports of the United States in trade with the Dominion were, in round numbers, $260,000,000. We think it worth while to negotiate reciprocity treaties which the senate quietly pigeon-holes—writs France, but our business with France last year fell short of that with Canada by more than $15,000,000. We are spending some three hundred million dollars on the Panama Canal in hope of enlarged trade with the west coast of South America. Our combined trade with all the countries on both coasts of South America in 1907 was only a little over $200,000,000. With all Asia we did in 1907 but $20,000,000 more than with Canada. The total foreign trade with all countries has grown 188 per cent. in the last ten years."

"From 1888 to 1906 Canadian imports from Great Britain increased from $10,043,451 to $69,132,915, or over $57,000,000. During the same time her imports from the United States increased from $74,824,922 to $185,738,376, or $90,913,454, according to her official statistics. In these years the exports of Canadian products to the United States increased over $49,000,000 and to England less than $24,400,000. In 1895 her dutiable imports from the United States exceeded in value those from the United Kingdom by $2,500,000; in 1906 the difference on the same side of the account was nearly $37,000,000. The value of goods reaching Canada in 1906 from the United States ports in 1906 amounted to $25,306,120; while the merchandise received in transit from Canada in 1906 at the Atlantic seaports of the United States and thence shipped to foreign countries was valued at $25,200,790. To such an extent each finds it convenient to use the ports, the railroad systems, and the canals of the other."

"I believe that the most natural, the most popular and the most highly profitable commercial status between the United States and Canada is free trade."

—On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hastings, Washington avenue, had a surprise party of friends who went there to present them with two handsome mahogany chairs in recognition of their hospitality which all had shared in the past. A very pleasant evening was spent in singing, games and dancing. The party breaking up in the early morning.

PERMANENT COMMISSION ON TARIFF URGED

Committee of the Canadian Manufacturers Presents
Report.

Hamilton, Sept. 15.—At the meeting of the Manufacturers' Association this morning the discussion was continued on railway reports. T. L. Fairbairn, Toronto, moved that the railway committee be instructed to meet with the express companies to endeavor to get the minimum rate down to twenty cents, and if refused to appeal to the Federal railway commission. Failing to secure a reduction there the Dominion government should be requested to reduce its postal rate on parcels under two pounds, and increase the size of the packages to meet the excessive express charges. Mr. Burton, Toronto, seconded the motion, pointing out the disparity in the cost of dispatching parcels in this country and in Great Britain or Germany.

A. Henderson, Windsor, opposed a reduction of postal rates, as it might encourage the mail order business. Finally this clause was withdrawn and the motion carried.

Harry Cockshutt, Brantford, presented the report of the committee on tariffs, the most important point being the proposal to petition the Dominion government to appoint a permanent commission on tariff.

RAID ON OPIUM DEN CAUSES SENSATION

Resorts at Stockton Alleged to Have Operated Under Police Protection.

Stockton, Cal., Sept. 15.—Five opium dens were raided here last night by Dr. D. G. Pratt, inspector for the state pharmacist board, who was accompanied by Sheriff Sibley and two of Pratt's assistants. Opium pipes to the value of $1,000 were collected in the reports and the owners of the places, including two white men, were arrested. The raid has created a big sensation in Stockton, and to-day Dr. Pratt is quoted as having said that the dens have been receiving police protection. The city authorities were ignored and were given no information concerning the raid until it had happened and the occupants of the resorts were simply locked up.

IMPRESSED WITH PROGRESS OF WEST

Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson Says
This Is Canada's Century.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, C. M. Hays and General Manager Chamberlin, of the G. T. P., had a long conference with Sir Wilfrid Laurier to-day on several matters relating to the new Transcontinental line. Sir Charles said the visit was merely a social call on the premier as before leaving for England he desired to express to Sir Wilfrid his impression of the remarkable evidences of progress and prosperity he had seen throughout the west, and to tell him he would carry back to the people of Britain the word that this was undoubtedly Canada's century.

QUADRA GOING NORTH ON BUOY WORK

Steamer Taking Materials For
New Wireless Station at Queen Charlottes.

Steamer Quadra, of the marine department of the Dominion government, left Wednesday with materials for the new wireless station to be erected in the neighborhood of Jedway, Queen Charlotte Islands. She is to undertake the buoy work which is necessary in those waters at the present time, and will probably not return for a month or more. C. P. Edwards, superintendent of wireless, is going on her and will return on the Quadra as soon as the work is under way. Capt. McDougall will have charge of the gang of workmen who are going.

The Leebro is also leaving with materials for the work on Triangle Island.

NOTHING DEFINITE AS TO MINORU RACES

Is Not Known Whether They Will Stop for Victoria
Fair.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Despite an announcement appearing in yesterday's Vancouver papers that the Minoru race meeting will run till October 9th, there is a well-defined feeling here among local sporting men that the meeting there will shut down west Saturday, if not altogether, at least for a week.

The original arrangement was that Minoru was to shut down for the Victoria fair races and on this understanding the B. C. Agricultural Association helped out the Minoru people with the loan of all the track equipment of the Willows track. Secretary Smart loaned them the recording boards and also the water gauge. The loan of a number of other fixtures for track use, jockey coat numbers and other incidentals with which the Minoru meeting has been conducted. The original loan was for a week, but at the expiration of that time nothing was done by the Vancouver association about returning them. Secretary Smart went over last week to look into these matters and was given no information concerning the loan until it had happened and the occupants of the resorts were simply locked up.

In addition to the above complication for the Vancouver meeting, the officials there are under contract till Saturday only and have made other engagements for the periods directly after that time. Judge Skinner and Starter Dwyer go to Salt Lake on Saturday night, and J. O. and R. J. Ewington go to Spokane. J. C. Luman and S. J. McElben come here, and Joe Weber is here already, while his brother, an assistant starter at Vancouver, comes here next week. Thus the proposed meeting is depleted of recognized officials whose presence the association will have some difficulty in creditably filling. Rumors that certain Vancouver men will fill the places have caused much uneasiness. Sir Charles said the visit was merely a social call on the premier as before leaving for England he desired to express to Sir Wilfrid his impression of the remarkable evidences of progress and prosperity he had seen throughout the west, and to tell him he would carry back to the people of Britain the word that this was undoubtedly Canada's century.

An interview with a visitor to Minoru who saw the new betting plan in operation, discloses that the bookmakers all commenced from the rear of the stand with their slates on long poles. They take a pace forward and stop to bet. They move forward one step further, like a small army, at the word. The process is repeated till they reach the rails on the broad slope in front of the stand, when the right about turn order is given and the bookmakers turn right round and march right in again. The plan does not go very well, it is said, and the amount wagered since the innovation the rule requires has considerably decreased. The bookmakers ejected from their comfortable stands find the new idea a hardship and tiring. The army of layers now and again takes a tangent in its movements and finds itself against the bar where for the time being all betting operations are suspended.

Secretary Smart asked what the plans for the local show betting ring were, said he did not know definitely if there would be any bookmakers here next week. Nothing has been done in this regard for the fair races and no applications to do business here have been received by the secretary from any of the large bookmakers or the small ones, for that matter.

URGES REDUCTION OF CABLE RATES

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 15.—Sir Sydney Spice, speaking at the opening meeting of the Chambers of Commerce Congress, emphasized the necessity of cheap cable rates throughout the Empire.

A big crowd of residents at Bellingham have chartered the steamer Chippewa for an excursion to the city on Friday of next week. The steamer will arrive at 11 a.m., leaving here again at 7 p.m., thus allowing the excursionists eight hours in which to take in the fall fair.

The local bank clearings for the week ending Tuesday amounted to $1,453,250.

RESIGNS FROM LIBERAL CLUB.

London, Sept. 15.—Lord Rosebery has resigned his membership of the Scottish Liberal Club.

THE "COMRADE'S" NEW AMBITION

J. H. HAWTHORNTHWAIT
TO RUN IN CONSTITUENCY

This Move Due to Alarm For
Fate of Conservative
Candidates.

It is learned on excellent authority that J. H. Hawthornthwaite, M.P.P., has informed his friends that at the next provincial elections he will seek the suffrages of the people of Victoria, as well as those of the people of Nanaimo, which city he represents in the Legislature as the candidate of the Socialists of the Coal City. Mr. Hawthornthwaite intends, should he be successful in Victoria, to sit for this city and resign from the Nanaimo, should he be elected in both constituencies.

The Socialists of Victoria during the last three general elections have had tickets in the field—on two occasions W. Watters carrying the banner single-handed, and at the last campaign the ticket being Messrs. Maroon and Watters. Though on each occasion the Socialists of the constituency suffered defeat, they claim that they have strengthened themselves considerably since the last election. During the interim lectures have spent some time in the field and the party is hopeful of making a better showing at the next fight.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite's appearance in the local arena is said by those who make a study of the provincial political situation to be a confession of weakness on the part of those in charge of the Conservative "machine" in this city. It is known of all men that the relations between Mr. Hawthornthwaite and the McBride government are not of an entirely friendly character, and that in a pinch the government can count on the "comrades" support in the Legislature. The fact taken in conjunction with the other fact that the Conservatives are dubious about their chances for electing the "big four" again in this constituency, is cited by the knowing ones as accounting for the determination of Mr. Hawthornthwaite to bid for the support of the Socialists of Victoria.

WEDDED TO-DAY IN ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Munro Married on Wednesday.

At 3 o'clock the bride entered the church on the arm of Mr. J. W. D. York, an intimate friend of the family, who gave the bride away. The bride was attended by her cousin, Florence McLeod, of New Westminster, as chief bridesmaid and Miss Marjory Greig as bridesmaid, while little Nellie Redgrave, sister of the groom, acted as flower girl. The groom was supported by Mr. Ralph Wilson and his brother, Mr. Lincoln Redgrave.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Percival Janna, rector of St. John's.

Immediately after the service the wedding party proceeded to the home of the bride's mother, 819 Eroughton street, where light refreshments were served. The rooms were prettily decorated. The bride looked charming in a princess gown of white silk made on train, trimmed with blue-silk and broderie and wore a handsome hand-embroidered veil belonging to her godmother, Mrs. H. Rhodes, of Vancouver. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Her travelling suit was a tailored green chiffon, broadcloth with hat to match. The chief bridesmaid looked sweet in a costume of blue silk null in semi-princess style, while the bridesmaid, Miss Marjory Greig, wore a daintily wired in pink null empire effect, both carrying a bouquet of pink carnations. Little Miss Nellie Redgrave, who made a lovely little flower girl, wore a pretty frock of pink null and carried pink roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold cross and chain, to Miss McLeod a pearl brooch, and coral necklaces to the bridesmaid and flower girl, while the groomsmen received gold cuff links. Mr. and Mrs. Redgrave were the recipients of many handsome presents, testifying to their popularity. They left on the Princess Charlotte at 5 o'clock for Seattle, where the wedding trip will be spent. On their return they will reside in Victoria.

The bride's only ornament was a pearl sunburst, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaids received brooches from the groom and the best man was presented with cuff links.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the bride's father, where a reception was held. The reception room was very artistically decorated, the color scheme being in white. Under a large bell of lilies and white asters the guests were received, the whole effect being very pretty.

The dining room decorations were in red, while in the table adornments smilax and red sweet peas had a prominent part. In the library where the guests were seated, the decorations were displayed, the decorations were carried out in pink.

Mr. and Mrs. Worthington will make a tour of Southern California, after which they will return to Victoria.

VANCOUVER MEN INTERESTED IN COAL

Large Area on De Courcy
Island Secured at Good
Price.

It is expected that a Vancouver syndicate has secured the coal rights on De Courcy Island from W. M. Flewitt. Some workmen, in making a government road, uncovered a seam of coal, which, while at the time only a few inches thick, at least indicates that there is coal on the island.

The Vancouver syndicate, secured 600 acres from Mr. Flewitt at $15 an acre, it is reported.

PRICE FIXED FOR LATE RUN OF SALMON

All the Canneries on the Fraser
Will Engage in it.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
Fifteen cents per fish will be the price paid by the canners for late sockeyes and cohoes when the fishing season on the Fraser river reopens at midnight on to-morrow night. It was stated by canners that this price would be generally observed till the fishing ends.

"Practically all the canneries which operated on the Fraser during July and August will be packing the late fish," said a canner in Vancouver. "In previous years all the canneries have not operated, the late work being principally confined to those who feared the stock of empty cans too large to be carried over. This year all the canners are in that fix, and in order to get rid of the cans fish will be packed as long as they come to run. Of course this year the pack on the Fraser has been so small that every canner is now out to get all the fish he can during the late run."

It is reported to-day from Stevenson, New Westminster and the Gulf, that the river and gulf waters are alive with cohoes and late running sockeyes. Canners and fishermen are confident the late pack this year will be a large one as the run of fish has been about two weeks later than usual and there are still many to be caught.

The Centennial Men's Bible class had a very successful business meeting last night. Plans were prepared for further extensions during the winter months.
