WON'T LEAVE JAIL

About a month ago Sheriff Sterling Cormally notified deputy faller Haw-thorn to hand over to him the keys and property of the fall on the first of and property of the jail on the first of November and then to vacate the premises. This morning Policeman George Rideout, acting as the sheriff's agent, went to the jail to take possession for the sheriff, but Mr. Hawthorn decilned to give up the keys or other property and he also declined to vacate. Sheriff Sterling has since placed the matter in the hands of A. J. Gregory, K. C., with instructions to proceed to acquire possession. Neither the shoriff nor Mr. Hawthorn will say anything for publication at present, but the incident has aroused much interest on the street. It will be recalled in this connection that the sheriff dismissed Mr. Hawthorn as his deputy over a month ago. It is to fill the position now that he has taken the present action.—Fredericton Gleaner.

It is thought that this preyed on his mind and contributed to his ultimate mental derangement. Last Thursday he took an unexpected change, and was seized with paroxysms. At times he raged with maniacal violence and became so uncontrollable that his removal to the asylum was decided upon. Messrs. Manchester, Robertson & Allison are giving his case their personal attention and his companions are actively sympathetic in his behalf.

It is feared, however, that he will never get better.

WHAT THE C. P. R. WILL DO.

While in Montreal last week, W. H.
Thorne, John H. Thomson and George Robertson, M. P. P., had an informal conference with Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the C. P. R., when the winter port question was discussed.
Sir Thomas hoped that some arrangement might be arrived at with the city whereby the necessary accommodation for all the C. P. R. steamers could be had.

Regarding the future. Sir Thomas for all the C. P. R. ateamers could be had.

Regarding the future, Sir Thomas talked very frankly with the gentlemen. The Canadian Pacific, he said, would like to bring all their steamers here, and said that in years to come they hoped to bring a larger fleet. Boston and other American seaport cities were bidding for their business and holding out inducements. St. John to retain its position as the winter port must have increased accommodation. The Canadian Pacific would like to see four new berths provided, and the building of two slips down the bar would do this. If the dominion government could be got to do the dredging and the city to build the wharves, Sir Thomas would recommend that the Canadian Pacific pay a rental, or in some way give assistance that would pay the city interest on its Investment and provide for necessary repairs.

The visitors promised Sir Thomas to present his views to the city council. Yesterday some of the aldermen were approached on the subject and today a committee will be appointed to wait on Sir Thomas.

THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS,

The November number of that ably edited periodical The American Review of Reviews contains unusually interesting discussions in its department, "Progress of the World," of the Alaskan decision, the canal trouble, the political situation in England, the president's part in the investigation of the U. S. postal scandal and other subjects. Among its notable special articles is one by Ervin Wardman on the Men and Issues in the New York Campaign and a remarkable contribution by his excellency M. de Piehve in defense of Russia's policy in Finland. Radium and its Wonders is the subject of an interesting article by George F. Kunze and the Rebirth of Japanese Literature provides Stanhope Sams with material for a scholarly paper. The department "Leading articles of the Month," provides the meat from the best periodicals of all countries and the book review department this month is particularly well filled.

WHERE THE BONDS WERE.

In the pocket of the late Squire Robinson's overcoat have been found bonds worth some $3,000, over which his family and the executors of his estate have been worried.

When Mr. Robinson died a little time ago at his residence in Lancaster and arrangements were being made for probate of his estate, certain bonds he was known to have possessed could not be found, though others were in the place where he kept his valuable papera. Search did not at first disclose them, then newspaper advertising was tried, but the missing documents finally were located in Mr. Robinson's pocket. They were placed in the executors' care yesterday.

LOST IN LABRADOR

rave Fears Felt For the Safety of an Explorer Who Would'nt Take Advice.

Calder expresses grave dbubts as to the safety of the Hubbard party, which was attempting what he considers an impossible trip. Calder tried to disaude Mr. Hubbard from venturing inland, but he persisted and, as already told in these despatches, he gave away nearly all his food before starting on the plea that he could advance faster if the burden was light. His intention was to proceed north towards Ungava Bay, but if he found this impossible his alternative would be to travel to the southwest, hopping to break out in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

It was the purpose of Mr. Hubbard to subsist on what he killed with the rifis, but Calder, who previously had travelled 150 miles inland through the forest, advised his taking a shotgun, which would enable him to kill small game. Calder believes that the only chance for Mr. Hubbard and his two companions is that a party of Nauscopee Indians, following the same route some els weeks later on a trapping expedition, may come up with him.

Common motion—J. M. Barry, K. C., moved for rule absolute for certiorari and rule nisi for mandamus against John O'Brien, justice of the peace for the county of Gloucester, for refusing to issue an execution. This case arises out of a violation of the fishery laws. The defendant was fined and the fine remitted by the minister of marine and fisheries and the point taken is that he had no authority to do so. Rule granted, returnable next term.

G. W. Allen, K. C., in ex parte W. Frank Tait, moved for rule absolute for certiforari and rule nisi to quash two cases under the Canada Temperance Act made before Stipendiary Cahill, of Sackville, on the ground that Cahill was police magistrate of Sackville, having forfeited the office of stipendiary for Westmorland county upon the incorporation of the town of Sackville, Rule granted.

CHINA DID NOT RESIST.

LONDON. Nov. 2.—In a despatch from Pekia, the correspondent of the Times says he doubts the reports of a large Chinese army in the vicinity of Mukden, because the principal grievance, of the Tartar general has been that Russia restricted him to 7,000 troops for the entire province.

Nobody in Pekin believes, the correspondent continues, that China will make any further resistance than a verbal protest.

LEOPARD IN AFRICA.

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—The militia department have been informed by Lord Strathoon that Lord Lansdowne has received a cable from Cel. Swayne, engaged in Somaliland, East Africa, saying that Major R. G. E., Leckie, a Canadian officer with the force, had been badly injured by a leopard, and was in a dangerous condition.

Major R. G. Leckie is on the reserve of Canadian officers and went to South Africa with one of the contingents. He took sick for a time out there, but did not return home and subsequently engaged in the East African campaign. He is a brother of Lieut. E. J. Leckie. D. S. O., of Torbrook, Nova Scotia.

THOSE CHAIRS AGAIN.

Some Firemen Angry Because the Peo-ple's Line's Gifts Were Returned.

The two chairs presented by the People's Line's Gifts Were Returned.

The two chairs presented by the People's Line S. S. Co. to the North End fire companies have been returned, and from remarks heard it appears that some of the fremen are becoming ashamed of their conduct. On Saturday evening, a member of one of the companies went to D. J. Purdy's atore with one of the chairs and left it there, stating that he had been authorized to return it. A short time later, two other firemen dropped in and enquired what had been done. They were indignant on learnings that the chair had been returned and said that the one who had done it had no authority from the company. Yesterday Mr. Purdy received a call from a fourth member of the company, who, like the other two, was very angry.

Mr. Purdy states that the stand taken by the steamship people was considered by them the best way of expressing their thanks for the work done in pumping out the damaged steamer. The company knew that perhaps five or six men had been at work, and at first it was decided to pay them. The men were not known individually, and Chief Kerr was requested to give the names, along with a suggestion as to what would be fair to pay. He advised seventy-five dollars, which was looked upon as ridiculous, and as it might cause ill-feeding if a reasonable amount were sent, the directors decided to present chairs—good chairs—to each company. This was done, and they have now been returned.

There will be a rehearsal of the Chapman chorus at eight o'clock this evening in the Church of England In-stitute instead of the York Theatre.
