

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ST. GEORGE
St. George, Sept. 26.—The ladies of the Altar Society of St. George's church held a very successful whist social last evening in the Dragonhall hall. The hall was tastefully decorated with bunting and flags and a large number of invited guests enjoyed the whist and "hop" that followed. During the evening Harry LeBlond, the popular manager of the Nickel, sang delightfully, his rich full voice showing to great advantage in a happy selection. Miss Nellie Mooney accompanied him on the piano. Candy and coffee were served after midnight and the affair was easily the event of the season. The committee of ladies in charge were highly commended for the success of the evening by those present. They were Mrs. George E. Frasley, Miss Annie Bradley, Mrs. Jas. Southard and Miss Essie McEwen.

NEWCASTLE
Newcastle, Sept. 22.—The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Oldfield took place to St. Mary's cemetery yesterday afternoon. Miss Oldfield was 84 years old. She leaves a brother, Humphrey, and a sister, Mrs. John Maddox, in Washington state. She died at the residence of her niece, Mrs. James Hopkins.

HOPEWELL HILL
Hopewell Hill, N. B., Sept. 22.—The battle is on in this parish for municipal honors, two full tickets being won in the field. Last week the Conservatives nominated Warden J. C. Ferguson of Albert, and Captain R. V. Bennett, Hopewell Cape, and at a convention of the Liberal party held at this place to-night, Councillor M. Pye of Hopewell Cape, and ex-Warden W. J. Camrath,

ST. GEORGE (continued)
The ladies in town are closed down this week while repairs are being made on the power wheel. The hunting season is now in a vengeance. Monday morning, before noon four loads of the woods were laid low, saying nothing of the deer that fell to the lucky ones. Hunters were out in scores and told the usual stories of their return. While this section of the province does not get the newspaper space accorded other game regions, it is in many respects the best of any other part of the country. The game is here, easy of access, with every kind of woodland pleasure, with streams where trout abound and ducks feed undisturbed, with hardwood ridges where partridge abound and sandy horse-backs where foxes den and stunted growth where rabbits burrow.

ST. GEORGE (continued)
If the visits of transportation experts, railway magnates, engineers, government officials and men of large affairs may be taken as an awakening to the opportunities offered by the harbor at St. John, then the country may look for development at this port. Of late it has been a dull week when some one big in transportation affairs has visited this section. The faith of J. Sutton Clark in the L'Etang has never weakened and it begins to look as if his efforts, on behalf of this undoubtedly great natural harbor, were about to receive the recognition they deserve.

ST. GEORGE (continued)
Percy W. Thomson, of St. John, is here in connection with hydro-electric power. Mr. J. Kerr and baby, with the Misses Doris and Helen are leaving to-day for their home in Boston. Mrs. Marshall accompanies them as far as St. John, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. T. L. McGrath.

NEWCASTLE (continued)

RELIEVES IN "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

Because He No Longer Suffers With Headaches
Taylorville, Ont.
"I was a sufferer from fearful headaches for over two years. Sometimes they were so bad that I was unable to work for days at a time. I took all kinds of medicine, was treated by physicians, but yet the headaches persisted. A short time ago I was advised to try 'Fruit-a-lives' and after 10 days I had taken them for three days, my headaches were easier and in a week they left me. After I had taken a box of these tablets, my headaches were quite cured. My appetite was always poor and my stomach bad and now my appetite is splendid and my digestion excellent. I had become thin and weak from the constant headaches but now not only have I been cured of these awful headaches, but my strength is growing up once more and I feel like a new man."

Take "Fruit-a-lives" 50¢ a box, for $2.00—trial size, 25¢. At dealers or from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

The buildings were thronged during the evening and musical programmes were given both afternoon and night and large crowds are expected on excursions tomorrow. Good weather promises fair for the horse racing.
