AN ANECDOTE OF ROSSINI.

way which caused Holms to describe street organists as "crusaders sent from some infernal clime to lop the ears of sentiment and dock the tail of rhyme."

Pretty soon a voice called out to the musician, "Quicker! quicker!" The performer only started. "Quicker! say! it's allegro." The organist professed his inability to secure these refinements, when the impatient Rossini—for he it was—seized the handle and turned it to the right measure. "Thank you for the lesson," said the organ-grinder. The next morning the pupil reappeared, and played with so much spirit that a voice from the house cried "Bravo!" while a louis rattled on the pavement. This is perhaps the oddest bit of instruction ever way which caused Holmes to describe perhaps the oddest bit of instruction ever iven by Rossini.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an altment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "athousand ille," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepula, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diar-

Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followell by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing sissapth, whyor, and seem life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Take away the sword: States can be saved without it. Bring me the pen. There is nothing so effective in bring ing a man up to the scratch as a healthy and high spirited flea. Tobacco.-Punch says a man who goes to church to chew tobacco and spit upon the floor, ought to be taken by the head and heels and used as a mop. A small Aberdeen child, being asked by her Sunday-school teacher, "What did the Israelites do after they crossed the Red Sea?' answered, "I don't know, ma'am; but perhaps they dried them-

HOW TO SUCCEED. stand up. If a rock rises up before you, roll it away, or climb over it. If you want money, earn it. If you wish for confidence, prove yourself worthy of it. It takes longer to skin an elephant than a mouse, but the skin is worth something. Don't be content with doing what another has done—surpass it. Deserve success, and it will come. The boy was not born a man. The sun does not

There is a story told of Rossini which may not possibly be the less authentic from its failure to become incorporated among the many anecdotes collected in the formal biography of the maestro.
One day an organ-grinder, making his rounds, stopped before Rossini's door, and began executing "Ditanti palpiti" on his instrument in that exeruciating
