

martial on officers, shall be published in the "Royal Gazette"; and any officer who has been on trial may call for a full copy of all proceedings, which shall be furnished to him from the place of record without charge.

81. Any officer reduced by order of the Commander-in-chief may demand full copies of all correspondence connected with his case, which shall be furnished him free of expense from the place of record.

82. The Commander-in-chief may call of vouchers, and draw upon the treasury for the sums necessary to defray the expenses of the militia or volunteer courts; but no president or members of any court, nor any acting judge advocate, or prosecutor, shall be entitled to more than four dollars a day, travelling expenses included, when residing more than ten miles from the place of assembly of the court, or more than two dollars a day if residing on the spot, or within ten miles of it.

83. Witness fees in all military courts under this chapter, shall be the same as in the supreme court. Witnesses refusing to appear before any militia or volunteer court, or civil court, on being summoned for default before any civil court, shall be liable to the same penalties as if they had refused to appear before the court before which they may be summoned for non-appearance, with the same costs and expenses.

84. Persons objecting to oaths from alleged conscientious motives, may, upon the President being satisfied that the objections are sincere, be put upon the affirmation which the statute prescribes for such witnesses.

OF THE ORGANIZATION, DISCIPLINING, AND TRAINING OF THE VOLUNTEERS.

85. The Commander-in-chief may authorize the formation of artillery, rifle, and cavalry companies, in the several regiments or battalions, and may frame regulations for them.

86. Volunteer corps shall have their districts prescribed by their commanding officer; two or more companies, with the same head quarters, may be included in the same district; the City of Halifax and its suburbs, including Dartmouth, shall be one district.

87. Effective members of volunteer corps, of all ranks, shall be exempt from serving on juries, or in the office of constable, and the performance of statute labor, or poll-tax, except in cases of animals of draft, or assessment on property, provided they be certified, by the commanding officer of the company, to the clerk of the peace, yearly, at or before the first of May; and the clerk of the peace shall, when required, give to any party exempted a certificate that his name is included in the list of exemptions; and such certificate, when produced to the surveyor of highways or commissioner of streets, shall entitle the party to the exemption allowed him by law; and the overseers or commissioners of streets may call upon the commanding officers of any corps of volunteers to affix his list of effective subordinates at any specified public place, within ten days' notice, once in the year; and on non-compliance with
