

ADMISSIONS, are judicial or extra-judicial.....	1243
“ judicial, cannot be revoked unless made through error of fact	1245
“ extra-judicial, how proved.....	1244
ADULTERY, a cause of separation from bed and board.....	187, 186
ADVANCE, what is, as regards commercial agents.....	1750
ADVISER, judicial :—See JUDICIAL ADVISER.
ADVOCATES :—See ATTORNEYS ad lites .
AFFINITY :—See WITNESSES, WILLS, MARRIAGE.
AFFIRMATION, equivalent to oath in certain cases.....	17 § 15
AFFREIGHTMENT :—
“ How the contract is made.....	2407
“ Who may make contract, and what responsibilities accrue from it.....	2408
“ Ship, equipments and freight are answerable for “ lessor, and cargo is answerable for lessee or freighter.....	2409
“ Contract is dissolved if irresistible force prevents the voyage	2410
“ If the port of destination is closed or ship detained for a short time only, parties must wait without damages on either side.....	2411
“ The same rule applies if the obstruction take place during the voyage.....	“
“ How freighter may unload cargo during the detention.....	2412
“ What rules govern the contract.....	2413
“ What affreightment by charter-party may consist of.....	2414
“ What memorandum of charter-party usually contains.....	2415
“ Time of loading, unloading and demurrage are regu- lated by usage.....	2416
“ Bill of lading should be signed for goods shipped under charter-party.....	2417
“ Lessor of whole ship entitled to freight on any cargo taken without his consent	2418
“ Conveyance of goods in a general ship.....	2419
“ Bill of lading how signed and delivered.....	2420
“ Bill of lading may be transferred by endorsement....	2421
“ Freight on receiving bill of lading is bound to give up receipts given by master	2422
“ Bill of lading makes proof against the party signing it	“
“ Obligations of the lessor as regards the ship.....	2423
“ “ of the master as to pilots.....	“
“ “ “ receiving and stowing goods and bill of lading ..	2424, 2425
“ “ “ departure and course of voyage ..	2426
“ “ “ safety of cargo.....	2427
“ “ “ delivery of goods.....	2428, 2429