

PLEBISCITE ON CAMPUS — JAN. 25

Suggested method of aiding Hungarian Students; Scheme to include a one dollar student levy.

A way has been found for U.N.B. to share in a scholarship programme for Hungarian refugee students. Whether or not students on this campus will share in this programme will be decided on Friday, January 25th when students will vote on the proposal that: "each student of the University of New Brunswick pay a one dollar student levy toward the Scholarship Programme for Hungarian refugee students at the time of registration in September, 1957".

At the final meeting of the S.R.C. last term, the local committee of the World University Service presented a report of its investigations and recommendations for the establishment of a scholarship programme to provide for five Hungarian refugee students to commence study at U.N.B. next September. University President, Dr. Colin B. Mackay, has already stated that the Administration will give generous financial support to this programme.

The suggestion of one dollar student levy was made, following a letter from Dr. Sidney Smith, National President of W.U.S.C., asking for the co-operation of the University Administration and the Student Council in meeting this need. The money acquired by the levy, will be administered by the World University Service committee and will be used to help meet expenses of books, board, and lodging which the refugee students will face on their arrival. At the present time the local W.U.S. committee is seeking outside sources from which to gain the additional large amount of money which will be needed to meet expenses in full.

From 10:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. on Friday, January 25, polling booths will be stationed in all buildings where lectures are held. Both the S.R.C. and the local W.U.S. committees have expressed their desire that students take advantage of the opportunity to express their opinions, both pro and con, of this plebiscite through letters to the editor of the BRUNSWICKAN.

YEAR BOOKS — MAY 1

Work on the 1957 edition of UP THE HILL 1957 is nearing completion. The Year Book Staff is now engaged in contacting the executives of all campus organizations and athletic teams to arrange dates for photo sittings. Write-ups for clubs and teams are to be limited to 175 words and must be placed in the "C" box in the lobby of the Arts Building by Tuesday, January 15. This short deadline is necessitated by a revised arrangement with the publishers.

AT DEBUT OF CAMPUS DANCES

Collegians Sway Dancers

The social season of '57 got off to a successful beginning on Saturday Evening as nurses, students of UNB and TC, with a week of exams and tests behind them, flocked to the Students Centre to witness the Debut of Paul Stewart's "Collegians".

Financially as well as socially, the dance was a welcome success, having been attended by some four hundred persons. This means that the dances can be run on a money-making basis, helping to replenish the S.R.C. coffers.

The atmosphere of the dance was orderly and relaxing. Standards of dress were a bit higher than at many college functions, no UNB jackets being allowed, having been in most cases replaced by a Sports jacket and tie. The Campus Police officials reported no difficulty was experienced with tipsy celebrators.

All were delighted with the high quality of the music supplied by Paul Stewart's "Collegians", especially as it was their first performance.

Although Teacher's College and the Nurses of Victoria Public Hospital were well represented, very few Business College Students attended, although rumour has it that enrollment at this school is in the vicinity of one hundred students (mostly female).

The first two dances are to be sponsored by the S.R.C. and following that other organizations may have the privilege.

One problem pointed up by the first dance was that of finding sufficient space. Attendance at the dances, now that they have proved so enjoyable, will no doubt increase, and a larger floor will have to be found.

RESIDENCE FUND NEARS COMPLETION

Lord Beaverbrook, Chancellor of UNB has issued an appeal to the people of New Brunswick to join in this "last round-up" of funds for the New Men's Residence. His Lordship has issued this statement:

"We now have subscribed for the new residence at the University of New Brunswick amounting to $335,000. As you know, the residence will cost $400,000.

"Mr. John W. McConnell, a senior Governor of McGill University, began the great giving with his subscription of $100,000. This money provided the nucleus of our fund.

"He, too, stimulated the gifts of additional sums amounting to $50,000. We must praise him as the real founder of our new residence.

"Sixty-five thousand dollars may seem a large amount of money for this province, but if we all give something, however small, the goal will soon be reached—and it must be reached by the time of the spring thaw when the building will be started."

of $50 is open to first class male teachers who have completed freshmen work.

Applications should be forwarded to R. J. Love, Room 207, Arts Building on or before January 25th.

International Socy.

Camera Club

There will be a meeting of the Camera Club this Tuesday, January 15, in the Oak Room of the Students' Centre at 7:30 p.m. Let's see as many of you as possible.

Neil Mulvaney — Rhodes Scholar

Popular Neil Mulvaney, an honours student in History and Economics, has been awarded the coveted Rhodes Scholarship. Mr. Mulvaney entered UNB in the fall of 1954 and has since that time distinguished himself both in the Academic field and in extra-curricular activities. He was awarded the Richard Burpee Hansen Prize for the highest standing in Sophomore English and History. For his essay on "The Problem of Good and Evil in Goethe's Faust", he was awarded the Howard Douglas Gold Medal.

Mr. Mulvaney has been active in the UNB Debating Society and, in 1956, he represented the university at the McGill Invitation Meet. As well as proving himself a capable student and debator, he has found time to be Features Editor of the "Brunswickan" and to play hockey on the Art's team.

At Oxford, Mr. Mulvaney plans to pursue his study of History, Economics and Philosophy.

Gala Dances, Sports Events at Winter Carnival

Winter Carnival time fast approaches and the dates assigned for this year are January 31st, Feb. 1st and 2nd. Again appearing on the agenda are gala dances, sports events, and varied spectator activities. The spectator activities, this year, will include a completely new spectacle in the form of an aerial firework display which will open the Carnival and be seen from all over the city. While mentioning spectator activities we must not omit the colorful Carnival Parade which was so successful last year.

The merchants are again co-operating in the wonderful fashion of last year with their prize donations. Unfortunately, there is the odd exception who has been misled due to an utterly false rumour that prizes are being given to any and everyone. It is true that the merchants have given us the wonderful support and we, the Winter Carnival Committee, certainly have more respect for their generosity and realize the moral obligations we incur in accepting their donations than to foolishly squander their prizes. All donations can be accounted for and all were legitimately earned by those who received them.

Jene Wood of Jen-ally Yours television show fame has again agreed to interview the Carnival Queen candidates on her show on January 23 at 7:00 p.m.

The Carnival Parade will be held on Saturday morning this year, and it is welcoming any local organizations or companies wishing to participate by entering a float, and hoping that they will take the opportunity to do so. For information leading to such a venture contact Phil Bird by phoning 8063 or 4500.

Tickets are scheduled to go on sale on January 23rd and due to the accommodation limits of the rink and gym the number of tickets to be sold will be limited to 2000 so be sure to get your tickets early.

The sculpture competition will be, as last year, open to the town and anyone interested is very definitely encouraged to take part. Faculties and campus start work soon for as was our opening statement "Carnival time fast approaches".
