Dear friend

I have just received a letter from Mrs de la Cour telling me of your great triumph - that you are now leader of the party for which you have done so much. That now you are in a position to do much more for your convictions of your country, at that you are reaping the reward of all these years - but I am happy for it with you - only wish I could grasp your hand & say to you personally what I write - that I am proud to have been your friend from that time when you decided to give your life to the welfare of your country - I feel keenly what
