Dear Mr. Cathcart:.

I have just learned from the Hon. T. G. Murphy that you have lost your good wife, Mrs. Cathcart. The news took me back a long way to the battles of more than two decades ago, and I could not help writing to express a word of sympathy for you in the loss you have now suffered and the trial you must be enduring. It would indeed be a pleasure to see you personally and give you this message. One of the regrets of my present residence and position is that I find it impossible to meet even occasionally the friends of long ago.

With sincerest sympathy and good wishes,

Yours very truly,

Arthur Meighen.

Mr. David Cathcart,
Keyes, Manitoba.
