Dear Mr. Meighen,

Since I am in Ottawa these last three weeks I have wished to see you. but knowing how precious is every minute of your time I have hesitated to ask you for an appointment.

Nevertheless the motive for which I wish for an 'entree' with you justifies me, I believe, in asking for it.

I returned from Paris last September. Since then I have made a great step and have awakened to my ambitions and ideal that had remained by the force of circumstances at a state
