

Another comes! and yet another—with the same exclamation.— Still more are added to the number. Are these “seals to his ministry”? Nay, my Brethren, they are rather “stars in the crown of his rejoicing”. His ministry has now no longer need of seals.

In view of such a scene, tell me, is it any disgrace to a man to be a “minister of the New Testament”?

May God multiply, a thousandfold, the number of “able ministers” to His Church!
