

But our Ranks are not dismayed; no craven fear has seized one man of them. There will be no "throwing up the sponge" by us in this conflict; no patched-up, worthless peace; but what we have set out to do we will surely accomplish.

Therefore it is that you who read, if fit, but not already enrolled, are asked to step right out from any past aloofness; throw aside any and every excuse that has hitherto held you back; and—LIKE A MAN — "TOE THE LINE" to-day. Kitchener says, "DO IT TO-DAY!"—and this will become your Red-Letter Day.

Faithfully yours,

A CITIZEN.

WHAT PRINCIPAL PETERSON THINKS.

In a recent letter to "CITIZEN," Sir William Peterson says:—"The other day I met a man who seemed to be afraid that, with all the millions in
