
Go to S. G. Read's No. 1 Bankrupt Store for Gloves.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.—Situated on John Street, north of the Great Western Railway station. This is a large and substantial frame building with a spire. Rev. J. Bayard, priest. In connection with the church, there is a good school (separate), with an average attendance of about 55 pupils.

MASONIC.

There are two lodges in the town—King Hiram Lodge, No. 37, stated meetings, Tuesday, on or before the full moon. Meets in the Masonic Hall, Thames Street. Also St. John's Lodge, No. 68, G. R. C. Regular meetings, first Thursday on or before the full moon. Meets in the Masonic Hall, Thames Street.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD-FELLOWS.

SAMARITAN LODGE, No. 35.—This Lodge was organized in 1855. Meets on Monday evenings, at Odd-Fellows' Hall, west side Thames Street.

BANKS.

NIAGARA DISTRICT BANK, INGERSOLL AGENCY.—Situated on Thames Street, west side. C. E. Chadwick, Manager; James Gordon, Accountant.

MERCHANTS' BANK, SAVINGS BANK, AND INGERSOLL AGENCY.—C. H. Sorley, Agent; G. C. McKenzie, Teller.

SCHOOLS.

In connection with the different denominations there are several schools in the town; the principal and public one being the Union School, which is a very excellent institution. E. S. Wiggins, Esq., M.A., Head Master, under whom there is an efficient staff of teachers. Mr. J. Cumming is the efficient principal of the Common School.

Abbott, David, carpenter.	Adair, Joseph, carpenter.
Ackert, John, pumpmaker, Thames.	ADAIK, SAMUEL (Adair & Cairns)
Adair, James, carpenter.	ADAIK, WILLIAM, hotel-keeper.
ADAIK, JOHN, prop. Adair's Hotel.	ADAIK & CAIRNS, grocers, Thames. (See Card.)

One of the largest Stocks of Ready-Made Clothing in Ingersoll at the Golden Fleece—W. Watson, Thames St., Ingersoll.