A Trustee Investment. — The Bonds issued by this Corporation are a high-class security in which Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest Trust Funds. They bear an attractive rate of interest, and may be had for any sum desired from one hundred dollars upwards. Both interest and principal may be made to become due at such dates as best suit the convenience of the investor.

Seventy-Five Years Ago

On the first of February, 1843, The Mutual Life of New York issued the first mathematical reserve policy ever written by an American company.

Having completed its 75th fiscal year on the 31st December, 1917, the Company enters upon the new year with a justifiable pride in its impregnable strength, its unsurpassed policy contracts, its generous dividends, and its great body of well-satisfied policyholders.
